C. of C. Opens Drive To Keep Pennington Here

$50,000 Will Return This Industry

A Chamber of Commerce offer of financial assistance toward re-establishing Pennington Bread Inc. bakery operations in Washington C. H. has sparked a chain reaction which may mean saving more than 200 jobs and a local payroll of three quarter of a million dollars annually.

Actually it could mean more than that— an expanded, streamlined commercial bakery replacing the Clinton Ave. plant wrecked by fire June 9— and a resultant substantial increase in employment.

* * *

THE $50,000 OFFER, of which $20,000 would come from the Chamber's 14 - year-old Industrial Development Fund and $30,000 through subscription, would offset a four-year saving in Pennington distribution costs which the company has found it could effect by moving its Washington C. H. operations to Columbus where a site has been under consideration.

Morgan B. Pennington, president of the corporation which is headquartered in Cincinnati, told a special meeting of C. and C. directors Tuesday night that the Washington C. H. plant "definitely will be rebuilt" if the financial goal is reached. Both Pennington and Howard G. Wright, vice president of the firm and local manager, attended the session.

Tom Mark, newly elected president of the Chamber, announced that a two-week fund campaign will get under way immediately. The committee which will seek the needed $30,000 from firms and individuals interested in keeping the Pennington operation here is composed of Mac Dews, chairman; Walter Patton and Walter Rettig. It was explained that donors will receive full refunds if the drive falls short of its goal.

* * *

A FIVE-YEAR agreement between the Pennington firm and the Chamber of Commerce, setting forth conditions for the financial aid, will be formalied later this week.

U. S. Mediators Start Talks in Steel Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal mediators confer today with a management team to pave the way for a face-to-face meeting tomorrow with union spokesmen in the hope of ending the national steel strike.

Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service officials arranged a "preliminary" meeting here with a team headed by John A. Stephens, vice president of U.S. Steel and chief negotiator.

The mediators met yesterday with officials of the striking United Steelworkers. They plan to call management and labor together in Pittsburgh tomorrow for resumption of negotiations.

The talks collapsed July 1, precipitating a strike which has idled 730,000 workers and cut national steel production by 90 per cent.

Chief mediator Joseph F. Finnegan said after a one-hour discussion with union officials the situation was "grave" but he was confident that both sides would cooperate in new bargaining efforts.

* * *

HE SAID he had assured the union men a solution would be worked out "only by bargaining" and it would "not be imposed by the government."

He said he would not term the strike a national emergency at this time.

David J. McDonald, steelworkers president, said the union is "ready and willing to enter into collective bargaining" although the strike was "forced" by the steel industry. He added:

"If the steel industry wants to make an agreement it can do it. So far it has shown no evidence of any desire to do so."

United Steelworkers called out 650,000 members on strike after the failure of negotiations for a new contract to replace on expiring July 1. In dispute were the duration of the contract and the immediate "package" pay raise.

The union rejected the last company offer of a 52-month contract. Management said it provided a raise of 17 2-3 cents an hour the first year. The union, representing workers who averaged $2.46 an hour before the strike began, said the proposed first-year increase actually amounted to only 14 cents and the contract offer was "too little and too long."

The union hasn't disclosed what wages or contract length it seeks.

REDS HIT 'INVASION'

Ike Challenged on GOP Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several Democrats challenged President Eisenhower today to raise Congress' handling of his legislative program as an issue in the coming campaign.

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) said the Democrats are well armed with facts about a lack of Republican support in Conress for foreign aid, which Eisenhower reportedly pledged yesterday to stress in the campaign.

"Before Eisenhower starts trying to convince millions with his leap year liberalism, I suggest that he try convincing about 225 Republicans in Congress who don't go along with him," Humphrey said.

"It might be better for him to campaign a little for the farmers and small businessmen, for the old age pensioners and the children in desperate need of school rooms."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala), the 1952 Democratic vice presidential nominee, said Eisenhower will have to explain how Republicans helped bottle up a Senate-passed housing bill in the House.

* * *

IN CHICAGO, Adlai E. Stevenson, front-running contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, said the country would "benefit in the coming months from a searching and vigorous debate on our urgent problems."

Sen. Kerr (D-Okla) predicted Eisenhower will be defeated in November "on the issues — farm policy, defense policy, foreign policy and others."

Eisenhower's intention to stay in the running for a second term was announced after he met with GOP congressional leaders yesterday in Gettysburg, Pa.

IKE'S HAT STILL IN RING a smiling, waving President Eisenhower ended all doubt of his second term intentions by announcing that he is still a candidate. The president told GOP congressional leaders in Gettysburg that he feels in "better shape" now than when he first said he would run again last February. With him are Rep. Joseph Martin (left), House minority leader, Senator William Knowland (right), Senate GOP leader and (in background) Senator Leverett Saltonstall.

Say U. S. Planes Fly over Cities

Washington Mum On Soviet Protest

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pending further study, U. S. officials remained silent today on a Russian protest that American military aircraft flew over seven Soviet cities on three different days this month.

Pentagon officials said they had "no immediate comment or information" about what Russian Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin described as incidents of "gross violation of Soviet air space."

Zarubin handed a formal protest to Secretary of State Dulles yesterday. The State Department said it was a military matter and promptly turned it over to the Defense Department.

Zarubin said the flights took place July 4, 5 and 9. He described them as "an invasion of our air" and said "some of these planes remained there two hours and one half."

A Moscow radio broadcast heard in London said the planes came from Western Germany by way of Communist East Germany and Poland. Moscow said two of the planes were twin-engine medium bombers.

* * *

"THE VIOLATIONS of Soviet air space can only be assessed as deliberate and carried out for reconnaissanne purposes," the broadcast quoted the protest note as saying. It described the flights as "deliberate action by certain U.S. elements to aggravate relations between the Soviet Union and the U.S.A."

The protest note said "the Soviet government expects the U.S. government to take measures to punish those guilty of these violations and to prevent such violations in the future."

The deepest penetration alleged by the Russians was over the city of Minsk, some 250 miles from the Baltic Sea Coast. Two of the points, Vilna and Kaunas, once belonged in the independent country of Lithuania which was gobbled up by the Soviets during World War II. The United States has never recognized this annexation.

Ohio School Board Rapped

Naming of State Chief Delayed Until Jan. 1

COLUMBUS (AP)—Joseph Stecher of Toledo called the Ohio Board of Education "derelict in its duty" as the board wound up its July meeting last night without naming a permanent state superintendent of public instruction.

Charlton Myers of Marion, chairman of a screening committee, told the board it will be "probably six months" before his committee can report.

The board voted to grant a six months' extension to Jan. 1 to the Personnel Committee in making its report on six men being considered for the position.

Stecher, one of five board members voting against the extension, declared:

"The board is being derelict in its duty in letting this matter hang in the air for so long a time."

The board voted to give a pay raise to R. M. Eyman, whom it kept on as acting superintendent after it took charge of Ohio's public school program last January.

* * *

EYMAN'S SALARY goes from $10,000 to $15,000 a year. The permanent superintendent, when he is named, will start at $20,000 a year.

The board started searching for a permanent superintendent early this year, and the Personnel Committee considered some 100 men suggested for the job before narrowing the field to six.

The six are Eyman, E. L. Bowsher of Toledo, Harold E. Eibling of Canton, Orville E. Hill of Cleveland Heights, E. E. Holt of Springfield and Paul A. Miller of Syracuse, N. Y.

Myers says, however, the board "will be free to consider other individuals if it chooses."

The board also approved transfer of territory from Newark School District to Health Local District in Licking County.

Freighter Sinks

NEW YORK (AP)—A Panamanian freighter sank today after colliding with an Italian cargo ship in thick fog 450 miles east of Boston. All crewmen were saved.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

Never before have I seen as many fireflies, or lightning bugs, as during the past two weeks. I have noticed that over a period of several years they apparently have been on the increase.

There are countless millions of them in Fayette County now and about dusk they begin to take to the air and display their intermittent, soft yellow light while flying slowly about.

Most of the species showing their lights while in flight are males.

The females, known as glow-worms, are wingless and remain on the ground. Usually their light is constant.

The light shown by the fireflies, apparently has no heat and is due to oxidation of a substance formed in the cells of the bodes of the insects, known as luciferin.

When scientists solve the problem of the production of luciferin it may be possible to produce light without heat and perhaps at an extremely low cost—if and when . . .

FBI Taking Hand In Kidnaping Case

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—The FBI tackled the baffling case of kidnaped Peter Weinberger today.

Under federal law the FBI had to hold off officially for seven days after the kidnaping. Government agents could have moved into the case earlier if they had evidence the victim was spirited across state borders. After seven days the law presumes such a erossing.

One week ago a bold kidnaper snatched the tiny boy from his carriage in the patio of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weinberger's home here. Weinberger, 48, is a well-to-do wholesale drug salesman.

The kidnaper grabbed the 5-week-old child in the middle of the afternoon and in full view of five other houses in this fashionable Long Island community.

He left a neatly penciled note demanding $2,000 ransom. Later a man believed to be the kidnaper telephoned the family and raised the demand to $5,000.

Police have found no trace of kidnaper or child. There is no way of knowing whether the infant is still alive. He needed a special formula of milk and a vitamin compound to survive.

* * *

MEANWHILE cranks and crackpots have called the heartbroken mother and tormented her with reports that they have the child or know where he is. All such reports have proved false.

But the 32-year-old mother, hoping against hope has repeatedly taken $5,000 in cash and tried to rendezvous with kidnapers who only existed in the cruel minds of hoaxers.

A Westbury pastor said after a visit with her that she made two more futile trips yesterday.

Seventeen crank calls were received at the Weinberger home yesterday. All were Anonymous. They came from as far away as Chicago and Pontiac, Mich.

A radio network got a call from a woman who said she had the baby and was leaving it in a convent at Point Lookout on the south shore of Long Island.

Police rushed to the scene but found no trace of the baby.

Gas Utility Strike Hits St. Louis Hard

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A steady diet of barbecued food is hard to take. Dining out with relatives soon becomes tiresome. Cold water baths are the cruelest blow of all.

This is the plight of thousands of St. Louis area residents, caught in the middle of a utility strike now in its 11th day.

The strike against the Laclede Gas Co. has produced a spreading breakdown of natural gas service that has affected 18,000 to 20,000 customers.

All efforts toward ending it, including state seizure of the firm under a law prohibiting strikes on utilities, have been unavailing.

Mountains of dirty clothes are piling up. Tea kettles and electric hot plates discarded years ago have been retrieved from attics. Camp stoves and ice boxes are in great demand. Barbecue pits are in use as never before.

Nerves are frayed.

Mrs. John Kitchen, who has been without service since July 4, is using a deep fat frier for cooking. But she's on a diet prohibiting fried foods. She said:

"My husband rigged up some kind of apparatus in the basement with a tub and charcoal fire under it for a hot bath. I wouldn't even look at it. I'm just doing the best I can with water heated in an electric coffee perculator."

Mrs. Christina Spahn, in an apartment building with no service since last week, said neighborhood laundromats are so rushed they've quit accepting more business.

"It's going to be terrible if it keeps on," she said.

The strike started when negotiators were unable to agree on wages and other terms of a new contract. The main issue is Laclede's plan to turn over to contractors the job of connecting appliances to gas lines. The work heretofore has been done by Laclede employes.

Ike Details Farm Surplus Disposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower reported today that $2,953,000,000 of government owned surplus farm products have been disposed of (mostly abroad) under the Agricultural Trade Development Act of 1954.

He said in a semiannual report to Congress that nearly one half, or $1,264,800,000, was contracted for sale or donation during the first half of this year.

The commodities were acquired under farm price support programs and the government still holds commodities valued at more than $8 billion.

In the report, Eisenhower called again for an increase of $1½ billion in the amount of additional commodities which may be disposed of under the law.

Ambulance Crash Fatal to Patient

AKRON (AP)—An ambulance carrying four persons injured in another accident collided with a truck here today. One person was killed and five others injured, one seriously.

Dead is 23-year-old Stanley Denson, of Akron, who was being taken to a hospital with three other injured persons when a car went out of control and plunged into a ditch. Denson and the others suffered only slight injuries in the first accident.

Reported in poor condition at the hospital was the ambulance attendant, Boyd Simmons.

Californian Wins Powder Puff Derby

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Mrs. Frances Bera, a flying instructor from Los Angeles, today was declared winner for the third time of the Powder Puff Air Derby.

The 2,366-mile race from San Carlos, Calif., to Flint began Saturday and ended officially Tuesday. Winners were announced today on a handicap basis.

Flying with Mrs. Bera was her sister, Mrs. Edna Bower.

Mrs. Bera won the race in 1953 and again last year. She flew a Beechcraft Bonanza.

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's national Weather Bureau said the United States apparently has set off the largest nuclear blast in this year's series of tests at Bikini.

Toledoan Dies As Fire Hits Apartments

TOLEDO (AP)—Fire shot through hallways of a four-story brick apartment building here shortly before last midnight, killing one person and injuring 10 others.

Francis McCuthen, about 50, was pronounced dead on arrival at a local hospital. Attendants there said apparently he died from inhaling smoke.

The others were treated at hospitals, mostly for being overcome by smoke.

Many inhabitants fled the building in gowns and pajamas when the fire broke out. Some, however, were unable to pass through the smoke and flame-filled corridors and had to wait until firemen could rescue them. The firemen used aerial ladders and masks to get to the people.

One of the apartment dwellers, Mrs. Lillian Wilson, 83, was tidying up her fourth floor apartment when she heard the crackling of the flames. She woke up her son, Edward, 59, but they were unable to leave their apartment until masked firemen arrived.

Fire Chief Arnold Papenhagen said the blaze may have started in an incinerator on the ground floor of the building. He estimated damage at $30,000.

The building had 38 apartments and seven sleeping rooms.

July-August Weather Holds Key to Crops

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's crops will be at the mercy of the weather in July and August more than in any recent year.

This point was emphasized yesterday by the Agriculture Department's first general crop report of the year.

As of July 1, the prospective crop tonnage was indicated at about the average of the last five years and 2 per cent below last year's near-record volume. But the department said the delayed effects of a late spring and shortages of soil moisture could greatly reduce production prospects in July and August.

The report said June rainfall east of the Rockies was inadequate and crops in some plains areas suffered severe drought damage.

Regardless of weather, the report said, there is no likelihood of shortages because of an accumulation of record surpluses of many crops under farm price support programs.

Reduced production would adversely affect farm income, however.

The department said the acreage for harvest on July 1 was only 1 per cent below last year. Officials had hoped to get a larger reduction when the administration recommended a new soil bank program last January.

Under this program, which did not become law until after most crops had been planted, payments are offered farmers for underplanting allotments of surplus crops and, under certain conditions this year, for plowing up such crops.

The report put the wheat crop at 922 million bushels compared with 937 million last year and the average of 1,148,000,000. The corn crop was forecast at about 3,300,000,000 bushels.

The indicated acreage for harvest, the average yield per acre and the production, respectively, for important crops for Ohio:

Winter wheat—1,511,000 acres; 27 bushels per acre, 40,797,000 bushels.

Corn—3,670,000; 53 and 194,510,000 bushels.

Oats—1,126,000; 44.0 and 49,544,000 bushels.

Soybeans (acreage for harvest only)—1,301,000 acres.

Tobacco—13,100; 1,613 pounds per acre and 21,135,000 pounds.

Commercial apples (production only) 2,200,000 bushels.

Sugar beets—17,000 acres for harvest, 13 tons per acre and production 221,000 tons.

As to the nationwide picture, the department's exact prediction for this year's wheat crop is 922,262,000 bushels, the corn crop, 3,266,688,000 bushels.

The wheat estimate is 410,000 bushels less than the 922,672,000 bushels forecast a month ago. It compares also with last year's revised estimate of 936,761,000

Landlord Slayer Bound to Jury

COLUMBUS (AP)—Mrs. Blanche E. Jacobs, 32, was held without bond to the Franklin County grand jury yesterday following a preliminary hearing in Columbus Municipal Court on a two-count first-degree murder charge.

Mrs. Jacobs entered no plea She is charged with the knife slaying July 2 of her elderly Groveport landlords, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Robinson. Police say Mrs. Jacobs admitted she killed the two during an argument after they learned she had forged checks on their bank account.

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Wintry weather gripped the Australian states of New South Wales and Victoria today. Sydney was hit by icy winds and heavy rains.

Ohio's Federal Road Funds Short of Need

COLUMBUS (AP)—State Highway Director S. O. Linzell said today that federal inter-state highway funds will fall about 40 per cent short of doing an adequate job in Ohio.

Linzell told about 150 representatives of cities and counties on the inter-state program that the highway department is seeking a formula of "equitable distribution" of the money.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche told newsmen he had insisted to Linell in advance of the meeting that "the spirit and letter of the federal highway act should be carried into effect and any adjustments to remove inequities will have to be achieved by funds other than those provided by the federal highway act."

Several city service directors and county engineers said they favored a 90-5-5 per cent federal-state-local split in financing the 13-year program.

Linzell and Clingan Jackson, chairman of the highway construction council, declined to say what formula they might recommend.

* * *

LINZELL SAID the highway department faces several problems of distribution.

One problem, he said, is that highways connecting urban expressways may not be eligible for federal participation.

"We cannot ignore 117 Ohio cities not on the inter-state system," Linzell added.

Washington C. H. Cited for Traffic Safety

The American Automobile Association has given Washington C. H. recognition for having no pedestrian deaths through traffic accidents for seven years.

The citation issued by the association is an award for "excellence of Pedestrian Protection Program" covering the seven-year period. The honor is regarded by City Manager James F. Parkinson and city officials as a most noteworthy one.

The citation, recognizing the city for its report in the AAA National Pedestrian Protection Contest was presented to Parkinson by Frank S. Jackson, president of the Fayette County Automobile Club.

"The residents of the community—both pedestrians and drivers—deserve considerable credit for making this award possible, Parkinson said and added:

"This record was achieved in the face of rising traffic exposure for pedestrians as a result if both an increase in vehicle use and the number of motor vehicles."

Jackson declared that "the marked reduction that has taken place in pedestrian fatalities over the years is the brightest spot in the entire traffic accident picture".

"Pedestrian fatalities in 1955 totaled 8,200, a reduction of 47 percent from the high point reached in 1937. During this same period of time all other traffic fatalities not involving pedestrians increased 25 percent."

Jackson said the national Board of Judges selected Washington C. H. for citation from 1,611 competing communities of all sizes. The real reward to the city, however, he stressed, was in pedestrian lives saved.

"Almost every pedestrian accident" Jackson pointed out, "results in serious injury or death. This makes it essential to place greater emphasis each year on pedestrian protection activities. There is a serious need during the summer months for mothers to instruct children to stay away from the streets in their play. Drivers should also be more alert for careless children."

Police Chief Vaiden Long expressed the belief that the law enforcement program here was largely responsible for the long period without deaths among pedestrians

FBI Taking Hand In Kidnaping Case

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—The FBI tackled the baffling case of kidnaped Peter Weinberger today.

Under federal law the FBI had to hold off officially for seven days after the kidnaping. Government agents could have moved into the case earlier if they had evidence the victim was spirited across state borders. After seven days the law presumes such a crossing.

One week ago a bold kidnaper snatched the tiny boy from his carriage in the patio of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weinberger's home here. Weinberger, 48, is a well-to-do wholesale drug salesman.

The kidnaper grabbed the 5-week-old child in the middle of the afternoon and in full view of five other houses in this fashionable Long Island community.

He left a neatly penciled note demanding $2,000 ransom. Later a man believed to be the kidnaper telephoned the family and raised the demand to $5,000.

Police have found no trace of kidnaper or child. There is no way of knowing whether the infant is still alive. He needed a special formula of milk and a vitamin compound to survive.

* * *

MEANWHILE cranks and crackpots have called the heartbroken mother and tormented her with reports that they have the child or know where he is. All such reports have proved false.

But the 32-year-old mother, hoping against hope has repeatedly taken $5,000 in cash and tried to rendezvous with kidnapers who only existed in the cruel minds of hoaxers.

A Westbury pastor said after a visit with her that she made two more futile trips yesterday.

Seventeen crank calls were received at the Weinberger home yesterday. All were Anonymous. They came from as far away as Chicago and Pontiac, Mich.

A radio network got a call from a woman who said she had the baby and was leaving it in a convent at Point Lookout on the south shore of Long Island.

Police rushed to the scene but found no trace of the baby.

Gas Utility Strike Hits St. Louis Hard

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A steady diet of barbecued food is hard to take. Dining out with relatives soon becomes tiresome. Cold water baths are the cruelest blow of all.

This is the plight of thousands of St. Louis area residents, caught in the middle of a utility strike now in its 11th day.

The strike against the Laclede Gas Co. has produced a spreading breakdown of natural gas service that has affected 18,000 to 20,000 customers.

All efforts toward ending it, including state seizure of the firm under a law prohibiting strikes on utilities, have been unavailing.

Mountains of dirty clothes are piling up. Tea kettles and electric hot plates discarded years ago have been retrieved from attics. Camp stoves and ice boxes are in great demand. Barbecue pits are in use as never before.

Nerves are frayed.

Mrs. John Kitchen, who has been without service since July 4, is using a deep fat frier for cooking. But she's on a diet prohibiting fried foods. She said:

"My husband rigged up some kind of apparatus in the basement with a tub and charcoal fire under it for a hot bath. I wouldn't even look at it. I'm just doing the best I can with water heated in an electric coffee perculator."

Mrs. Christina Spahn, in an apartment building with no service since last week, said neighborhood laundromats are so rushed they've quit accepting more business.

"It's going to be terrible if it keeps on," she said.

The strike started when negotiators were unable to agree on wages and other terms of a new contract. The main issue is Laclede's plan to turn over to contractors the job of connecting appliances to gas lines. The work heretofore has been done by Laclede employes.

Ike Details Farm Surplus Disposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower reported today that $2,953,000,000 of government owned surplus farm products have been disposed of (mostly abroad) under the Agricultural Trade Development Act of 1954.

He said in a semiannual report to Congress that nearly one half, or $1,264,800,000, was contracted for sale or donation during the first half of this year.

The commodities were acquired under farm price support programs and the government still holds commodities valued at more than $8 billion.

In the report, Eisenhower called again for an increase of $1½ billion in the amount of additional commodities which may be disposed of under the law.

Ambulance Crash Fatal to Patient

AKRON (AP)—An ambulance carrying four persons injured in another accident collided with a truck here today. One person was killed and five others injured, one seriously.

Dead is 23-year-old Stanley Denson, of Akron, who was being taken to a hospital with three other injured persons when a car went out of control and plunged into a ditch. Denson and the others suffered only slight injuries in the first accident.

Reported in poor condition at the hospital was the ambulance attendant, Boyd Simmons.

Californian Wins Powder Puff Derby

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Mrs. Frances Bera, a flying instructor from Los Angeles, today was declared winner for the third time of the Powder Puff Air Derby.

The 2,366-mile race from San Carlos, Calif., to Flint began Saturday and ended officially Tuesday. Winners were announced today on a handicap basis.

Flying with Mrs. Bera was her sister, Mrs. Edna Bower.

Mrs. Bera won the race in 1953 and again last year. She flew a Beechcraft Bonanza.

Bikini Blast

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's national Weather Bureau said the United States apparently has set off the largest nuclear blast in this year's series of tests at Bikini.

Toledoan Dies As Fire Hits Apartments

TOLEDO (AP)—Fire shot through hallways of a four-story brick apartment building here shortly before last midnight, killing one person and injuring 10 others.

Francis McCuthen, about 50, was pronounced dead on arrival at a local hospital. Attendants there said apparently he died from inhaling smoke.

The others were treated at hospitals, mostly for being overcome by smoke.

Many inhabitants fled the building in gowns and pajamas when the fire broke out. Some, however, were unable to pass through the smoke and flame-filled corridors and had to wait until firemen could rescue them. The firemen used aerial ladders and masks to get to the people.

One of the apartment dwellers, Mrs. Lillian Wilson, 83, was tidying up her fourth floor apartment when she heard the crackling of the flames. She woke up her son, Edward, 59, but they were unable to leave their apartment until masked firemen arrived.

Fire Chief Arnold Papenhagen said the blaze may have started in an incinerator on the ground floor of the building. He estimated damage at $30,000.

The building had 38 apartments and seven sleeping rooms.

July-August Weather Holds Key to Crops

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's crops will be at the mercy of the weather in July and August more than in any recent year.

This point was emphasized yesterday by the Agriculture Department's first general crop report of the year.

As of July 1, the prospective crop tonnage was indicated at about the average of the last five years and 2 per cent below last year's near-record volume. But the department said the delayed effects of a late spring and shortages of soil moisture could greatly reduce production prospects in July and August.

The report said June rainfall east of the Rockies was inadequate and crops in some plains areas suffered severe drought damage.

Regardless of weather, the report said, there is no likelihood of shortages because of an accumulation of record surpluses of many crops under farm price support programs.

Reduced production would adversely affect farm income, however.

The department said the acreage for harvest on July 1 was only 1 per cent below last year. Officials had hoped to get a larger reduction when the administration recommended a new soil bank program last January.

Under this program, which did not become law until after most crops had been planted, payments are offered farmers for underplanting allotments of surplus crops and, under certain conditions this year, for plowing up such crops.

The report put the wheat crop at 922 million bushels compared with 937 million last year and the average of 1,148,000,000. The corn crop was forecast at about 3,300,000,000 bushels.

The indicated acreage for harvest, the average yield per acre and the production, respectively, for important crops for Ohio:

Winter wheat—1,511,000 acres; 27 bushels per acre, 40,797,000 bushels.

Corn—3,670,000; 53 and 194,510,000 bushels.

Oats—1,126,000; 44.0 and 49,544,000 bushels.

Soybeans (acreage for harvest only)—1,301,000 acres.

Tobacco—13,100; 1,613 pounds per acre and 21,135,000 pounds.

Commercial apples (production only) 2,200,000 bushels.

Sugar beets—17,000 acres for harvest, 13 tons per acre and production 221,000 tons.

As to the nationwide picture, the department's exact prediction for this year's wheat crop is 922,262,000 bushels, the corn crop, 3,266,688,000 bushels.

The wheat estimate is 410,000 bushels less than the 922,672,000 bushels forecast a month ago. It compares also with last year's revised estimate of 936,761,000

Landlord Slayer Bound to Jury

COLUMBUS (AP)—Mrs. Blanche E. Jacobs, 32, was held without bond to the Franklin County grand jury yesterday following a preliminary hearing in Columbus Municipal Court on a two-count first-degree murder charge.

Mrs. Jacobs entered no plea. She is charged with the knife slaying July 2 of her elderly Groveport landlords, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Robinson. Police say Mrs. Jacobs admitted she killed the two during an argument after they learned she had forged checks on their bank account.

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Wintry weather gripped the Australian states of New South Wales and Victoria today. Sydney was hit by icy winds and heavy rains.

Ohio's Federal Road Funds Short of Need

COLUMBUS (AP)—State Highway Director S. O. Linzell said today that federal inter-state highway funds will fall about 40 per cent short of doing an adequate job in Ohio.

Linzell told about 150 representatives of cities and counties on the inter-state program that the highway department is seeking a formula of "equitable distribution" of the money.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche told newsmen he had insisted to Linell in advance of the meeting that "the spirit and letter of the federal highway act should be carried into effect and any adjustments to remove inequities will have to be achieved by funds other than those provided by the federal highway act."

Several city service directors and county engineers said they favored a 90-5-5 per cent federal-state-local split in financing the 13-year program.

Linzell and Clingan Jackson, chairman of the highway construction council, declined to say what formula they might recommend.

* * *

LINZELL SAID the highway department faces several problems of distribution.

One problem, he said, is that highways connecting urban expressways may not be eligible for federal participation.

"We cannot ignore 117 Ohio cities not on the inter-state system," Linzell added.

Washington C. H. Cited for Traffic Safety

The American Automobile Association has given Washington C. H. recognition for having no pedestrian deaths through traffic accidents for seven years.

The citation issued by the association is an award for "excellence of Pedestrian Protection Program" covering the seven-year period. The honor is regarded by City Manager James F. Parkinson and city officials as a most noteworthy one.

The citation, recognizing the city for its report in the AAA National Pedestrian Protection Contest was presented to Parkinson by Frank S. Jackson, president of the Fayette County Automobile Club.

"The residents of the community—both pedestrians and drivers—deserve considerable credit for making this award possible, Parkinson said and added:

"This record was achieved in the face of rising traffic exposure for pedestrians as a result if both an increase in vehicle use and the number of motor vehicles."

Jackson declared that "the marked reduction that has taken place in pedestrian fatalities over the years is the brightest spot in the entire traffic accident picture".

"Pedestrian fatalities in 1955 totaled 8,200, a reduction of 47 percent from the high point reached in 1937. During this same period of time all other traffic fatalities not involving pedestrians increased 25 percent."

Jackson said the national Board of Judges selected Washington C. H. for citation from 1,611 competing communities of all sizes. The real reward to the city, however, he stressed, was in pedestrian lives saved.

"Almost every pedestrian accident" Jackson pointed out, "results in serious injury or death. This makes it essential to place greater emphasis each year on pedestrian protection activities. There is a serious need during the summer months for mothers to instruct children to stay away from the streets in their play. Drivers should also be more alert for careless children."

Police Chief Vaiden Long expressed the belief that the law enforcement program here was largely responsible for the long period without deaths among pedestrians

Vigil Is Ended By Sheriff Hays

Hitskipper Search Outcome Uncertain

It was announced at the sheriff's office Wednesday noon that, so far as was known there, Chillicothe authorities had not located Ernest B. Cockerell former Chillicothe councilman, who is wanted here for questioning in connection with allegedly leaving the scene of a collision involving a car driven by Herman East, of Washington C. H. The two cars were reported to have come together on Route 70 near the Sugar Creek bridge early Tuesday.

At Chillicothe, Sheriff Hays and a Ross County deputy sheriff watched the Cockerell garage for some time Tuesday, after Sheriff Hays had gone to Chillicothe in search of the hit-skip driver. A car was found in Cockerell's garage, but there was no response at his residence.

Cockerell's brother told Sheriff Hays he would have his brother come to Washington C. H. as soon as he could be located, it was stated here.

Sheriff Hays gave up his vigil at Cockerell's garage Tuesday in time to attend the Southwestern Ohio Sheriffs Assn. meeting at the Snow Hill Country Club near Wilmington in the evening. He was in Columbus part of Wednesday, but the reason for his mission there was not disclosed at his office.

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio liquor department is looking for new ways to curb the "hip-pocket bootlegger."

That term is applied to persons who buy legal liquor in pint bottles, then re-sell it at sky-high prices to thirsty Ohioans after liquor stores and bars have closed for the night.

Liquor Director William C. Bryant today called a huddle of state store supervisors and enforcement officials. It will be held tomorrow. In announcing the meeting, Bryant said:

"It would appear that instead of gaining ground in our battle to do away with illegal after-hour pint sales, that this racket continues to flourish. Our efforts have been hampered by the fact that the pints have been purchased by persons giving wrong names or wrong addresses, or both."

One possible method to fight the bootlegging racket, Bryant said, is to extend store hours until 9 p.m. on Friday and Saturday nights. He pointed out that until the World War II manpower shortage hit all stores were open until 11 p. m. six nights a week.

Also, he said, the department will start a careful check on suspiciously large purchases of pints.

Boy, 2, Missed In Family Rollcall

LOS ANGLES (AP)—Rollcall will be more closely watched in the Refugio Rangel household. Mrs. Rangel overlooked one of her 10 children and it was 14 hours before he was found.

She looked in on the youngsters, all in identical nightshirts, as they got ready for bed, and thought she counted them all.

But Benjamin, 2, had slipped out and was found four blocks away by a stranger who turned him over to police. It wasn't until morning when Mrs. Rangel called the roll again that Benjamin was found to be missing. A phone call to police united the family.

U. S. Grand Jury Re-Indicts 2 Professors in Red Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A federal grand jury Tuesday re-indicted for contempt of Congress two college professors who refused to answer questions before a House Un-American Activities subcommittee hearing in Dayton in September, 1954.

The grand jury also indicted Dr. John C. Coldiron of Dayton for illegally administering narcotics to three persons. Coldiron, 59, formerly of Hazard, Ky., and a one-time candidate for lieutenant governor of that state, was indicted on five counts of illegally administering morphine sulfate shots in April and May of this year.

The re-indictments for contempt of Congress were returned against Robert M. Metcalf, a professor at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, and Lee Lorch, a professor at Philander Smith College, Little Rock Ark.

Metcalf was indicted on four counts of refusing to testify about alleged Communist activity at Antioch and Lorch on eight counts of a similar charge of refusing to testify about alleged Communist activity in the Dayton - Yellow Springs area.

Both had been indicted previously on the same charges in connection with the subcommittee hearing, but a federal judge in Dayton threw out the indictment against Metcalf on the ground that it was not properly worded. Later the indictment against Lorch was similarly dropped.

No date has been set for the arraignment of Metcalf, Lorch and Coldiron in Dayton District Court.

Others named in indictments returned Tuesday included the following, scheduled for arraignment in Cincinnati:

Brian Kevin Donnelly, Raymond Allen Flemming and Kenneth Thomas Kranzman, charged with assaulting a federal deputy marshall and a guard in Adams County last week in an escape attempt as they were being transported to the Chillicothe Federal Reformatory.

Bernard J. Krebs of Middletown, charged with reporting and paying tax on only $35,287 in the years 1950-52, when the taxable income of Krebs and his wife, according to the government, was actually $58,748.

Earl Frazier of Portsmouth, charged with sending an obscene letter through the mails.

Scheduled for arraignment in Columbus:

James Oscar Ward of North Canton and William Wilson Davis of Akron, indicted on separate counts of failure to comply with Akron Selective Service Board orders to perform civilian work at Columbus State Hospital under terms of the Universal Military Training and Service Act.

Lewis Albert Kitchen of Rt. 2, Nelsonville, charged with possessing an illegal still and five gallons of fermenting mash.

Leona Bixler of Lancaster, charged with forging a $67.10 U. S. treasury check which had been stolen from the mails.

Calvin F. Jones, indicted for transporting a stolen motor vehicle from West Virginia to Circleville, Ohio.

James K. Nealton of Newark, charged with falsifying income tax returns for 1950-53 on a stated total income for the four years of $41,743 when the government claims he and his wife jointly earned $86,779.

Also indicted was Floyd Eugene Coen, cashier of the Glouster (Athens County) Community Bank, charged with embezzling $6,898 from the bank and making an unauthorized loan to himself.

Soviet Envoy Shouting Out: 'I Like Ike'

LONDON (AP) — Soviet Ambassador Jacob Malik is an "Ike for President" booster.

"Have you heard the news?" asked Russia's envoy to Britain as he swept into a party last night given by Harry Hohler, British Foreign Office official.

Heads turned his way, awaiting some new pronouncement from the Kremlin.

"Sen. Knowland," said Malik, "has just announced that Ike is going to be a candidate. This is fine news."

Another guest laughingly commented it was strange hearing the Soviet ambassador bearing news about the American presidency.

"I'm for Eisenhower," said Malik. "The people of Europe know him. They like him and trust him. We can do business with President Eisenhower."

"It's summer," said Malik, changing the subject, "that means it's rose time. You should see my roses. I call them my peace roses."

Man Kills Son, 11 In Rifle Mishap

HURON (AP)—A father and son, on a two-week vacation together, tired of fishing yesterday and decided to shoot a rifle from their small boat at targets on the Huron River's banks.

William S. Nelson, 52, squinted through the telescopic sight for a bead on a tin can. As he pulled the trigger, his 11-year-old son, Larry, stood up in the boat.

The bullet went through the boy's head, and he died before they could reach a hospital.

N-S Turnpike Seen Coming by DiSalle

LIMA (AP) — Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic Candidate for governor, predicts the proposed Conneaut to Cincinnati expressway will be built as a toll road.

DiSalle made his prediction despite reports by financiers that the the present time makes financing the road as a toll project unfeasible. But DiSalle said:

"In this country there are periods of tight money and loose money. Soon there should be funds available for construction of this superhighway as a turnpike. In the meantime, I would favor using state funds for this purpose."

They were there only as a precautionary measure. The NYC, now converted to diesel locomotives, had abandoned the 65-foot high wooden structure and planned to have it torn down. It accidentally caught fire.

Boy, 2, Missed In Family Rollcall

LOS ANGLES (AP)—Rollcall will be more closely watched in the Refugio Rangel household. Mrs. Rangel overlooked one of her 10 children and it was 14 hours before he was found.

She looked in on the youngsters, all in identical nightshirts, as they got ready for bed, and thought she counted them all.

But Benjamin, 2, had slipped out and was found four blocks away by a stranger who turned him over to police. It wasn't until morning when Mrs. Rangel called the roll again that Benjamin was found to be missing. A phone call to police united the family.

U. S. Grand Jury Re-Indicts 2 Professors in Red Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A federal grand jury Tuesday re-indicted for contempt of Congress two college professors who refused to answer questions before a House Un-American Activities subcommittee hearing in Dayton in September, 1954.

The grand jury also indicted Dr. John C. Coldiron of Dayton for illegally administering narcotics to three persons. Coldiron, 59, formerly of Hazard, Ky., and a one-time candidate for lieutenant governor of that state, was indicted on five counts of illegally administering morphine sulfate shots in April and May of this year.

The re-indictments for contempt of Congress were returned against Robert M. Metcalf, a professor at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, and Lee Lorch, a professor at Philander Smith College, Little Rock Ark.

Metcalf was indicted on four counts of refusing to testify about alleged Communist activity at Antioch and Lorch on eight counts of a similar charge of refusing to testify about alleged Communist activity in the Dayton - Yellow Springs area.

Both had been indicted previously on the same charges in connection with the subcommittee hearing, but a federal judge in Dayton threw out the indictment against Metcalf on the ground that it was not properly worded. Later the indictment against Lorch was similarly dropped.

No date has been set for the arraignment of Metcalf, Lorch and Coldiron in Dayton District Court.

Others named in indictments returned Tuesday included the following, scheduled for arraignment in Cincinnati:

Brian Kevin Donnelly, Raymond Allen Flemming and Kenneth Thomas Kranzman, charged with assaulting a federal deputy marshall and a guard in Adams County last week in an escape attempt as they were being transported to the Chillicothe Federal Reformatory.

Bernard J. Krebs of Middletown, charged with reporting and paying tax on only $35,287 in the years 1950-52, when the taxable income of Krebs and his wife, according to the government, was actually $58,748.

Earl Frazier of Portsmouth, charged with sending an obscene letter through the mails.

Scheduled for arraignment in Columbus:

James Oscar Ward of North Canton and William Wilson Davis of Akron, indicted on separate counts of failure to comply with Akron Selective Service Board orders to perform civilian work at Columbus State Hospital under terms of the Universal Military Training and Service Act.

Lewis Albert Kitchen of Rt. 2, Nelsonville, charged with possessing an illegal still and five gallons of fermenting mash.

Leona Bixler of Lancaster, charged with forging a $67.10 U. S. treasury check which had been stolen from the mails.

Calvin F. Jones, indicted for transporting a stolen motor vehicle from West Virginia to Circleville, Ohio.

James K. Nealton of Newark, charged with falsifying income tax returns for 1950-53 on a stated total income for the four years of $41,743 when the government claims he and his wife jointly earned $86,779.

Also indicted was Floyd Eugene Coen, cashier of the Glouster (Athens County) Community Bank, charged with embezzling $6,898 from the bank and making an unauthorized loan to himself.

Soviet Envoy Shouting Out: 'I Like Ike'

LONDON (AP) — Soviet Ambassador Jacob Malik is an "Ike for President" booster.

"Have you heard the news?" asked Russia's envoy to Britain as he swept into a party last night given by Harry Hohler, British Foreign Office official.

Heads turned his way, awaiting some new pronouncement from the Kremlin.

"Sen. Knowland," said Malik, "has just announced that Ike is going to be a candidate. This is fine news."

Another guest laughingly commented it was strange hearing the Soviet ambassador bearing news about the American presidency.

"I'm for Eisenhower," said Malik. "The people of Europe know him. They like him and trust him. We can do business with President Eisenhower."

"It's summer," said Malik, changing the subject, "that means it's rose time. You should see my roses. I call them my peace roses."

Man Kills Son, 11 In Rifle Mishap

HURON (AP)—A father and son, on a two-week vacation together, tired of fishing yesterday and decided to shoot a rifle from their small boat at targets on the Huron River's banks.

William S. Nelson, 52, squinted through the telescopic sight for a bead on a tin can. As he pulled the trigger, his 11-year-old son, Larry, stood up in the boat.

The bullet went through the boy's head, and he died before they could reach a hospital.

N-S Turnpike Seen Coming by DiSalle

LIMA (AP) — Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic Candidate for governor, predicts the proposed Conneaut to Cincinnati expressway will be built as a toll road.

DiSalle made his prediction despite reports by financiers that the the present time makes financing the road as a toll project unfeasible. But DiSalle said:

"In this country there are periods of tight money and loose money. Soon there should be funds available for construction of this superhighway as a turnpike. In the meantime, I would favor using state funds for this purpose."

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am writing for my sister, who feels I can write the better letter. We are both in our twenties. Jane is married to a wonderful man her own age, 23, whom she truly loves, she says. She has confessed to me a pang of jealousy because she feels that she can't enter the area of his main interests, which are sports.

John, I'll call him, has a life-long chum (a bachelor) who visits maybe once a week, and the two men are like schoolboys discussing their favorite topics. Occasionally they go to games together and obviously enjoy each other's company. Jane doesn't care for sports, but feels "left out" when John doesn't ask her to go with him.

I've told Jane that John's interest in sports doesn't subtract from his devotion to her. He is wonderful to her, as she says herself. I've advised her to develop interests of her own.

When I work nights, as I often do, my husband's best pal (also a bachelor) comes over and the two men baby-sit with our son, and have a great time with their hi-fi records and books. They are very intellectual and I am not, but I don't feel as helpless or left out as my sister does.

Will you please try to explain a good attitude for her to assume? I am completely happy, but she seems to gain no inspiration from my marriage.

P. T.

DEAR P. T.: Your sister's attitude is babyfied, though it is unflattering to a baby to say so. A baby literally can't help himself, whereas your sister could.

Jane expects to be the center of attention, solely because she exists. It is this infantilism on her part that takes the joy out of marriage for her, and causes her to feel crucified by John's other interests in life. And also causes him to be bored with her (more than either admits), I suppose.

To be explicit, Jane's attitude is insatiably demanding, and consumingly selfish, though cloaked in terms of winsome "helpless" appeal. In having you author this letter on her behalf, for example, she contrives to make you feel pleases with yourself, as a person specially gifted and complimented, in doing her essential work for her.

Her present anxiety and frustration are a sharp reminder to her to grow up, psychologically, and become comfortably oriented to the practise of making room in her life for beloved persons, who aren't necessarily absorbed in her all the time.

Glamor Designer Showing Kind of Camisole-Chemise

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — It's sort of a camisole and kind of a chemise, so glamor designer Ceil Chapman calls it a "camise."

It's the loose bloused top with camisole straps, usually jeweled or beaded, which distinguished the newest silhouette in the Chapman collection of festive fashions for fall evenings, previewed today for the fashion press.

Though it was somewhat a look of the flapper era, Ceil uses the camise top on a full-length satin gown done in the 1912 manner—heavily beaded lace bodice and hemline border. There also are versions for cocktail and dinner wear, in various lengths from mid-calf to instep.

This designer, noted for fashions which glorify the best features of the female form, goes all out for glitter this fall, using bushels of beads and scads of sequins, oodles of jewels and piles of paillettes in after-five fashions that are as elegant as Lillian Russell at her most flamboyant.

Equally elegant is the collection of Jo Copeland, the all-American designer who invented the cocktail suit, and who always has had a weakness for sexy styles. She also utilizes the 1912 look in a series of slender evening dresses of ankle length, such as one in champagne satin encrusted with pounds of beads, and a gold lace confection with a band of black velvet around the above-the-ankle hemline.

An apricot brocade dinner dress is short in front, longer in back, with fan-shaped folds adding back interest and ostrich feathers adding the popular pre-war touch to the bodice.

George Carmel uses a column silhouette in most of his distinguished collection of coats and suits, supplying softening feminine touches by use of face-framing fur collars, and other elaboration at the top. Suits often are belted or bloused in back, skirts are slim with walking ease achieved by means of low-placed pleats or slits.

And for big evenings, Carmel shows a group of satin coats with sable trim, elegant enough for the Maharanee of Indore.

Ohio Mental Patient List Shows Decline

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dr. John D. Porterfield, director of the State Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction, said today the number of patients in Ohio's hospitals for the mentally ill has dropped to the lowest figure in more than two years.

The total stands now at 26,805, which is 516 below the all-time high recorded July 1, 1955, Dr. Porterfield said.

He commented that the drop has been accomplished despite a record high admission rate of more than 10,000 patients a year.

Although the number of mentally ill has decreased, the number of mentally retarded in Ohio institutions continues to rise, he said. There are 7,546 institutionalized mentally retarded persons in Ohio now, compared with 7,334 a year ago, Dr. Porterfield said.

He cited the success of tranquilizing drugs in rendering patients more amenable to treatment as one reason for the decline. Another factor, he said, is the step-up of social service functions enabling discharged patients to make a successful transition back to the community.

Agent to Assist Vendors in Area

Will Be Located at Court House Here

All persons having Ohio vendors' licenses will be required to file their next semiannual sales tax returns by July 31, for the period Jan. 1 to June 30, 1956, according to announcement today by the Department of Taxation, Division of Sales and Highway Use Taxes.

Returns mailed to the Treasurer of State should be postmarked not later than July 31 to avoid a $1 a day charge for delinquent filing, it is stated.

To assist vendors with these returns, the Department of Taxation has arranged to have an examiner stationed at the Court House here Monday and Tuesday, July 30 and 31.

Vendors seeking assistance from examiners will be required to present all records necessary to substantiate the figures to be reported, such as a copy of their return for the previous period, a record of gross and exempt sales and a record of taxable sales of 41 cents or over for the period January 1 to June 30, 1956.

Vendors also must bring copies of their purchase orders showing the amounts of stamps purchased during the first half of 1956.

Vendors are no longer required to have sales tax returns sworn to before a notary public or a representative of the Department of Taxation. The vendor, however, is required to sign the declaration on the return that the information given is true.

When completed, all returns must be filed with or mailed to the Treasurer of State, P. O. Box 1799 Columbus. If a deficiency is shown on the vendor's return, remittance in the amount of tax due should accompany the return, made payable to the Treasurer of State, either by check, draft or money order.

Mechanical Brain With A Mind of Its Own

PORTALES, N. M. (AP)—The Portales Daily News, apologizing for leaving out two names in the list of Eastern New Mexico University graduates, blamed it on the typecasting machine.

The newspaper added "we shall chastise the machine for its willful neglect, especially since one of these two graduates is a former reporter and proof reader for the Daily News and hence the machine should have known better."

Mack Sauer Is Rotary Club Speaker

Although Tuesday's Rotary luncheon schedule conflicted to some degree with the All - Star Baseball Game, the club attendance didn't seem to suffer because the day's program offered a star attraction in the appearance of Mack Sauer, Leesburg editor, philosopher and humorist who delivered one of his characteristic talks.

Introduced by Judge Max Dice, although he is well known here through his many public appearances as an entertainer, Sauer lost no time in hitting his attention-winning stride by declaring he rather expected everybody to leave immediately by preference for the ball game, but he would be grateful if one or two would remain because he wanted to practice some of his stories to learn if anybody would at least smile, if not laugh.

* * *

IN RAPID-FIRE manner Sauer proceeded, not only to hold his audience but to keep most of his hearers bent double.

Along with his inimitable delivery and scores of jokes and stories, the speaker interspersed a bit of homespun philosophy that carried some sound points for serious thought.

He took occasion to praise Washington C. H. as the favorite city of his travels because of the unusual number of people here who seemed to feel a civic pride in accepting responsibility and in taking interest and an active part in public affairs. He declared that this immediate locality to him seemed to be an ideal place to live and enjoy life if one was able to appreciate the many good things within and around it.

In the course of his remarks he referred to his hometown of Leesburg with pride but said that it was difficult to get people there to serve in public office since whole groups of town officials seemed to enjoy resigning at one time.

* * *

SAUER MENTIONED that Leesburg appeared to be progressing however, as an engineer had been brought in who gave an estimate of $400,000 for construction of a new sewer system. He didn't say when a contract might be awarded.

When the speaker concluded his talk, Rotary President Robert Lisk complimented him enthusiastically and told him he always would be a welcome visitor and speaker to this club.

With no regular song leader as yet appointed to fill the vacancy caused by departure of William Clift, the volunteer help of the Rev. L. J. Poe, again was utilized in the usual Rotary songfest.

Visiting Rotarians for this meeting were Allen Johnson and Dr. Upp of Greenfield, Ottice Hockman of Mt. Sterling and Selsor Fenner of Melbourne, Florida.

Other guests were Joseph Sauer of Dayton with Max Lawrence, Cadet Richard Tracey of the U. S. Air Force Academy and his father Byron Tracey of this city, with Judge Max Dice.

Watch Crossings And Save Lives Auto Club Urges

"The $50 billion federal-aid highway program just approved in Washington will mean elimination of many highway hazards in the next 13 years. But a lot of lives can be saved in the 13 years we are waiting for those improvements by just using more common sense right now in all our travels."

This is the word from the Fayette County Automobile Club.

"The federal program for better highways is greatly needed. But we will be wrong in expecting that travel can ever be made automatically safe just by the spending of billions of dollars.

"Every highway can be made safer right now, if motorists generally will come to a greater will to live and to let others live, at every intersection, every grade crossing, and on every foot of the highway.

"The cost of safety must be paid in desire as well as dollars," the AAA Club spokesman asserts.

Clean - - But not Neat

DENVER (AP)—Police arrested a purse-snatch suspect who offered the information he was "clean" and had no police record.

At headquarters, when confronted with a 7-page police record showing 59 arrests for drunkenness, the suspect explained:

"Well, what I meant was that I've never been in any penitentiary or concentration camps."

Thomas Dennis on Way To Service with Navy

Thomas Elton Dennis, 18, who enlisted in the Navy here, was on his way early Wednesday morning to the Fort Hayes Armed Forces Examination Station at Columbus for his physical examination.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Dennis, of 64 S. Main St., New Holland. He was graduated from the New Holland High School last spring and has been a member of Company M, National Guard, for the past year.

Chief Philip G. Lee in charge of the Navy recruiting station here said he will undergo his "boot training" at the Bainbridge, Md., Training Center if he passes his physical examination. Lee also said Dennis was enlisted in pay grade E-3 because of his prior service with the National Guard.

Glamor Designer Showing Kind of Camisole-Chemise

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — It's sort of a camisole and kind of a chemise, so glamor designer Ceil Chapman calls it a "camise."

It's the loose bloused top with camisole straps, usually jeweled or beaded, which distinguished the newest silhouette in the Chapman collection of festive fashions for fall evenings, previewed today for the fashion press.

Though it was somewhat a look of the flapper era, Ceil uses the camise top on a full-length satin gown done in the 1912 manner—heavily beaded lace bodice and hemline border. There also are versions for cocktail and dinner wear, in various lengths from mid-calf to instep.

This designer, noted for fashions which glorify the best features of the female form, goes all out for glitter this fall, using bushels of beads and scads of sequins, oodles of jewels and piles of paillettes in after-five fashions that are as elegant as Lillian Russell at her most flamboyant.

Equally elegant is the collection of Jo Copeland, the all-American designer who invented the cocktail suit, and who always has had a weakness for sexy styles. She also utilizes the 1912 look in a series of slender evening dresses of ankle length, such as one in champagne satin encrusted with pounds of beads, and a gold lace confection with a band of black velvet around the above-the-ankle hemline.

An apricot brocade dinner dress is short in front, longer in back, with fan-shaped folds adding back interest and ostrich feathers adding the popular pre-war touch to the bodice.

George Carmel uses a column silhouette in most of his distinguished collection of coats and suits, supplying softening feminine touches by use of face-framing fur collars, and other elaboration at the top. Suits often are belted or bloused in back, skirts are slim with walking ease achieved by means of low-placed pleats or slits.

And for big evenings, Carmel shows a group of satin coats with sable trim, elegant enough for the Maharanee of Indore.

Ohio Mental Patient List Shows Decline

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dr. John D. Porterfield, director of the State Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction, said today the number of patients in Ohio's hospitals for the mentally ill has dropped to the lowest figure in more than two years.

The total stands now at 26,805, which is 516 below the all-time high recorded July 1, 1955, Dr. Porterfield said.

He commented that the drop has been accomplished despite a record high admission rate of more than 10,000 patients a year.

Although the number of mentally ill has decreased, the number of mentally retarded in Ohio institutions continues to rise, he said. There are 7,546 institutionalized mentally retarded persons in Ohio now, compared with 7,334 a year ago, Dr. Porterfield said.

He cited the success of tranquilizing drugs in rendering patients more amenable to treatment as one reason for the decline. Another factor, he said, is the step-up of social service functions enabling discharged patients to make a successful transition back to the community.

Agent to Assist Vendors in Area

Will Be Located at Court House Here

All persons having Ohio vendors' licenses will be required to file their next semiannual sales tax returns by July 31, for the period Jan. 1 to June 30, 1956, according to announcement today by the Department of Taxation, Division of Sales and Highway Use Taxes.

Returns mailed to the Treasurer of State should be postmarked not later than July 31 to avoid a $1 a day charge for delinquent filing, it is stated.

To assist vendors with these returns, the Department of Taxation has arranged to have an examiner stationed at the Court House here Monday and Tuesday, July 30 and 31.

Vendors seeking assistance from examiners will be required to present all records necessary to substantiate the figures to be reported, such as a copy of their return for the previous period, a record of gross and exempt sales and a record of taxable sales of 41 cents or over for the period January 1 to June 30, 1956.

Vendors also must bring copies of their purchase orders showing the amounts of stamps purchased during the first half of 1956.

Vendors are no longer required to have sales tax returns sworn to before a notary public or a representative of the Department of Taxation. The vendor, however, is required to sign the declaration on the return that the information given is true.

When completed, all returns must be filed with or mailed to the Treasurer of State, P. O. Box 1799 Columbus. If a deficiency is shown on the vendor's return, remittance in the amount of tax due should accompany the return, made payable to the Treasurer of State, either by check, draft or money order.

Mechanical Brain With A Mind of Its Own

PORTALES, N. M. (AP)—The Portales Daily News, apologizing for leaving out two names in the list of Eastern New Mexico University graduates, blamed it on the typecasting machine.

The newspaper added "we shall chastise the machine for its willful neglect, especially since one of these two graduates is a former reporter and proof reader for the Daily News and hence the machine should have known better."

Mack Sauer Is Rotary Club Speaker

Although Tuesday's Rotary luncheon schedule conflicted to some degree with the All - Star Baseball Game, the club attendance didn't seem to suffer because the day's program offered a star attraction in the appearance of Mack Sauer, Leesburg editor, philosopher and humorist who delivered one of his characteristic talks.

Introduced by Judge Max Dice, although he is well known here through his many public appearances as an entertainer, Sauer lost no time in hitting his attention-winning stride by declaring he rather expected everybody to leave immediately by preference for the ball game, but he would be grateful if one or two would remain because he wanted to practice some of his stories to learn if anybody would at least smile, if not laugh.

* * *

IN RAPID-FIRE manner Sauer proceeded, not only to hold his audience but to keep most of his hearers bent double.

Along with his inimitable delivery and scores of jokes and stories, the speaker interspersed a bit of homespun philosophy that carried some sound points for serious thought.

He took occasion to praise Washington C. H. as the favorite city of his travels because of the unusual number of people here who seemed to feel a civic pride in accepting responsibility and in taking interest and an active part in public affairs. He declared that this immediate locality to him seemed to be an ideal place to live and enjoy life if one was able to appreciate the many good things within and around it.

In the course of his remarks he referred to his hometown of Leesburg with pride but said that it was difficult to get people there to serve in public office since whole groups of town officials seemed to enjoy resigning at one time.

* * *

SAUER MENTIONED that Leesburg appeared to be progressing however, as an engineer had been brought in who gave an estimate of $400,000 for construction of a new sewer system. He didn't say when a contract might be awarded.

When the speaker concluded his talk, Rotary President Robert Lisk complimented him enthusiastically and told him he always would be a welcome visitor and speaker to this club.

With no regular song leader as yet appointed to fill the vacancy caused by departure of William Clift, the volunteer help of the Rev. L. J. Poe, again was utilized in the usual Rotary songfest.

Visiting Rotarians for this meeting were Allen Johnson and Dr. Upp of Greenfield, Ottice Hockman of Mt. Sterling and Selsor Fenner of Melbourne, Florida.

Other guests were Joseph Sauer of Dayton with Max Lawrence, Cadet Richard Tracey of the U. S. Air Force Academy and his father Byron Tracey of this city, with Judge Max Dice.

Watch Crossings And Save Lives Auto Club Urges

"The $50 billion federal-aid highway program just approved in Washington will mean elimination of many highway hazards in the next 13 years. But a lot of lives can be saved in the 13 years we are waiting for those improvements by just using more common sense right now in all our travels."

This is the word from the Fayette County Automobile Club.

"The federal program for better highways is greatly needed. But we will be wrong in expecting that travel can ever be made automatically safe just by the spending of billions of dollars.

"Every highway can be made safer right now, if motorists generally will come to a greater will to live and to let others live, at every intersection, every grade crossing, and on every foot of the highway.

"The cost of safety must be paid in desire as well as dollars," the AAA Club spokesman asserts.

Clean - - But not Neat

DENVER (AP)—Police arrested a purse-snatch suspect who offered the information he was "clean" and had no police record.

At headquarters, when confronted with a 7-page police record showing 59 arrests for drunkenness, the suspect explained:

"Well, what I meant was that I've never been in any penitentiary or concentration camps."

Thomas Dennis on Way To Service with Navy

Thomas Elton Dennis, 18, who enlisted in the Navy here, was on his way early Wednesday morning to the Fort Hayes Armed Forces Examination Station at Columbus for his physical examination.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Dennis, of 64 S. Main St., New Holland. He was graduated from the New Holland High School last spring and has been a member of Company M, National Guard, for the past year.

Chief Philip G. Lee in charge of the Navy recruiting station here said he will undergo his "boot training" at the Bainbridge, Md., Training Center if he passes his physical examination. Lee also said Dennis was enlisted in pay grade E-3 because of his prior service with the National Guard.

Effects of Steel Strike Soon May Be Felt

Round about Fayette County there is little talk about the steel strike; nor has any special effect been noticed here as yet. A rural community like ours is among the last to feel it.

In scores of other places however, especially some of the more populous areas, reports are beginning to drift in that business is beginning to notice what has happened, not so much from the 650,000 strikers as from the rumors of other industries, dependent upon supplies of steel for their operation, which are preparing for lay-offs of many, if not all, of their workmen if there is no indication of a settlement soon.

It is generally recognized that among the world's industrial giants, the American steel industry is the largest. When it stops operation the adverse effect becomes noticeable in the nation's economy very soon.

Construction and rail equipment industries soon become severely handicapped. A shutdown of the steel industry for a month to six weeks will find most of the big users of steel at a halt. This means a stoppage in the nation's construction and expansion operations. The unemployment which follows soon would be felt in retail business.

It is gratifying, of course, that in capitalistic America this protest by the nation's third largest union is orderly and according to law, while in the so-called workers' paradises of communism, such as Poland, the strikers are victims of machine guns and tanks.

While this presents in dramatic outline the fact that only in the free Western nations do industrial workers have power and liberty, the domestic outlook is not a happy one. A full 40 per cent of all American industry depends on steel for its basic raw materials.

The outlook is not good for other reasons. For some weeks it has been gossiped about that because some inventories were high there were those who thought a steel strike would be a "good thing" for business. Both steel and the union owe it to the country to clear this ugly talk out of the way. It would be most unfortunate for the American system if the people ever came to believe that strikes were in any manner manipulated for the benefit of a few.

Furthermore both steel and the union owe it to their country to reach an agreement which will not touch off the dangerous acceleration of inflation. Any agreement would bring about some increase in costs, wages, and retail prices. One selfishly arrived at could be as damaging as a long strike.

He Fears Not Being Good

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—There is a saying that, except for doctors, actors are among the world's worst hypochondriacs.

It is easy to see how a doctor, surrounded all day by ill health can become a hypochondriac. Let him get even a degree of fever, and he can suspect a thousand things that may be wrong with him.

But why actors?

"It's the tension they live under," said Henry Fonda. "The theater is exacting. The necessity of making eight performances a week, month after month if you've got a hit play, gets you to worrying about your health.

"Even a sneeze will start you to brooding. Gradually, against your own better judgment, you turn into a hypochondriae."

Fonda himself, however, seems to have the durability of a draft horse. He played "Mister Roberts" on Broadway more than 1,000 times without missing a performance.

After appearing in more than 60 films and dozens of plays, Fonda has joined the growing ranks of stars who have formed their own companies to produce their own pictures.

He is refreshingly frank about why he finally turned producer.

"It's about the only way you can make any money and save it," he said. "You pay regular income tax on your salary. But on the profits of a picture you make as head of your own company you have to pay only a corporate tax. There's a big difference."

Fonda is president of Orion Productions, a title he picked merely because he didn't want to use his own name.

His first venture will be certainly modest from a financial standpoint. He is starring in a screen adaptation of Reginald Rose's television play, "12 Angry Men," a psychological study of an all-male jury trying a slum kid for murder.

The film is being shot in a studio here on a budget of $370,000, an amount Cecil B. DeMille might spend on a single scene.

So far Fonda says he hasn't found much difficulty adjusting to his dual role as producer-actor.

Fonda, who came from the Nebraska prairies, started out to be a newspaperman but couldn't find a job in that field. He worked as a physical training instructor, iceman, window dresser, garage mechanic and clerk before he became an actor.

Now ranked with Frederic March as one of the most versatile men in his profession, he is deeply serious about acting. The tribute he draws most often from other actors is this: "The guy has integrity."

Critics often have remarked that, like his friend, Jimmy Stewart, he has the ability to look effortless.

"It should look effortless," he admitted. "It shouldn't look like acting. But if it actually is effortless acting its' wrong somewhere. It's hard work. If you're worth your salt as an actor, you can't let yourself get mechanized no matter how many times you play the same role.

Fonda isn't as afraid of losing fame as he is of "not being good."

"Every actor, I would think," he said quietly, has it—the fear of not being adequate."

Hoover Jr. Does Job Well

By George Sokolsky

The physical facilities of men in public office seem to bother political opponents more these days than seem to be warranted by the facts of life. For instance, I note this paragraph in "The New York Times":

"His "(Herbert Hoover Jr.'s) shyness derives from two disconnected events. Deafened as a boy, Mr. Hoover must depend on a hearing aid. This puts a halter on easy conversation."

I have been conversing with this man these past 20 years or more, and never have I noted that the use of a hearing aid lessened the sharpeness of his mind or his capacity for wit and humor. Bernard Baruch and Charles Edison employ hearing aids which have apparently not interfered with their careers any more than wearing eyeglasses prevents a man from reading or writing, from being a philosopher or a banker or a professor.

It used to be that when a gang wanted to smear a man, they whispered about his sex morals as was done to Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding; then it became fashionable to describe a man as a reactionary or a fascist as was done to Herbert Hoover Senior. Then men were attacked for being soft on Communists which has been said about both Harry Truman and Dwight Eisenhower. Now, it is the fashion to discover a physical defect and rake a man over the coals for that, although I must say that the rakers are not themselves anything like Adonis and some of them probably suffer from ulcers or halitosis.

It would appear that Herbert Hoover, Jr., has displeased those guardians of the State Department who look back to the halcyon days of Dean Acheson as the time when ideas were batted about at all levels and some were even activated, to use such parlance. Well, those were wonderful days and we are today paying a heavy price for the luxury of letting free minds play endlessly with possibilities and probabilities but avoiding realities, resulting, when the score is added up, in a series of difficulties which are proving very costly,.

"Thus, "The New York Times" article says:

"His warmest admirers do not credit Mr. Hoover with imagination or sureness of touch in dealing with political problems. He is not an idea man, as Dean Acheson was in the same job. His main strength lies in administration, and in carrying out policies once they have been decided."

The job for which the government hired Herbert Hoover, Jr. is administration of a sprawling, uncoordinated department in charge of the very serious business of foreign relations. So far as a box score can be arranged, Herbert Hoover Jr. has not made more errors than President Eisenhowcr or Secretary Dulles, it being take for granted that changes are so rapid today that it is not always possible to meet each situation as was possible perhaps in the time of Talleyrand and Castlereagh when statesmen knew each other and knew what they were talking about.

Today, suddenly a Khrushchev or a Nasser appears on the scene and all the presumptions of a month ago are no longer in focus at all. Also, it is necessary to walk warily for if we are not actually on the brink of the horrible atomic war, we are never too far away from it.

Take Nasser as an example. It is believed by some experts on Egypt that until about a week ago, Nasser was talking under a terrific pressure from intensive nationalists. Now that he has become president after a one-candidate election, it is believed that he is likely to be more malliable if that is the word. At any rate, he is more likely, these people believe, not to want to drive the United States to an utterly antagonistic position.

On the other hand, you never can tell and unless this country means to make war over the Middle East situation, it is wisest to wait a while longer to see just what develops. The argument against that is that we waited too long about China in the days of General Marshall and the Communists captured the country.

Final decisions concerning American policy on the Eisenhower administration are not made in the State Department. They are made in the National Security Council and the White House. But the State Department does need competent and constructive administration and that Herbert Hoover Jr. can give it.

Ohio Polio List Drops Sharply

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Department of Health lists 46 cases of polio in the state this year compared with 145 cases reported in the same period last year.

Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, state health director said the figures represent cases in all age groups, and are no index to the effectiveness of the Salk vaccine. Only school age children and pregnant women received the vaccine.

Generally, he said, the case figures for the polio season this year are lower than in four years.

Exercise Is A Help In Asthma Recovery

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Special exercises can play an important role in recovery among asthmatics. Some of these exercises may even help relieve an attack.

Asthmatics, whether infants or elderly adults, are diaphragmatic cripples. For children and young adults, suitable breathing exercises help prevent chronic swelling and deformity of the chest.

Here are some exercises:

Have the youngster exhale as slowly and as completely as possbile from 10 to 20 times each morning and evening. He can help the exhaling process by pressing inward on his lower anterior ribs with both hands.

By making a sort of game of it, you can get him to do the exercises more readily and at the same time insure complete exhalation. Let him blow a piece of paper, a ping-pong ball or a feather across a table.

Some doctors advise letting the young patient blow a pinwheel as long and as fast as possible. When breathing in, the breaths should be of normal depths rather than forced as is the exhalation.

Playing "wheelbarrow" also is recommended by some doctors. In this game, the child walks on his hands while his legs are held by another youngster.

Here's a useful exercise to relieve a youngster in status asthmaticus which you can use if your doctor recommends it:

Brace one leg on a chair, then jackknife the child at the knees over your leg. This causes his body to fall perpendicularly and the force of gravity helps in filling the heart.

Breathing also is shifted to abdominal from thoracic by the pressure of the abdominal viscera on the diaphragm.

The youngster probably will cry and thrash about. But that's usually all right. The more he struggles, the more quickly the paroxysm will be over.

Defective Valve Blamed for Blast

CINCINNATI (AP)—An apartment house explosion which killed one occupant and injured 19 others last June 12 was caused by a defective safety valve.

That was the report yesterday by George Keller, superintendent of city air pollution control and heating inspection. He conferred with heating officials here on new laws to prevent similar accidents.

Cincy Robbery Admitted Hoax

CINCINNATI (AP)—Edward Yahn, 26-year-old night attendant at a service station here, told police yesterday he was robbed of $214.

But police said Yahn later admitted under questioning the story was bogus, and showed detectives where he had hidden the money. Investigators said he told them he took the money because he had "a lot of bills to pay and wanted to get married." He was charged with making a false crime report.

Contrary to previous evidence, scientists have found that individual dreams can last as long as an hour.

The Nation Today

James Marlow

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—What a presidential illness means — in drift and lack of leadership — is illustrated by President Eisenhower's bleated efforts in behalf of his foreign aid and federal aid to education programs.

While he was recovering from his June 9 operation, and was not here to use personal pressure, both houses chopped down the money he wanted for foreign aid. And his House Republicans had a big hand in killing his school aid proposals.

It is not certain that he would have used personal pressure if he had been here.

Robert Donovan, in his recent book — "Eisenhower: The Inside Story"—says that right after Eisenhower took office in 1953 he decided the best thing to do in the face of mounting troubles was to "maintain a silence 'of confidence.'"

Eisenhower apparently has decided he had better not remain silent now after seeing the cuts being made in foreign aid and the destruction of the school aid program.

Republic congressional leaders who visited him at Gettysburg yesterday said he is "irritated" with the Democratic Congress. the Democrats have a thin majority there, they run it. But if he tries to use them as a campaign target, they have ammunition to fire back.

It's the performance of his own Republicans — the way they've thwarted him and sometimes led the parade in doing it. There's no mystery about why they want him to run again: he's the best insurance for their own re-election.

But it is ironic they should be so anxious for his continued leadership and still do to him what they did on the education bill. The Democrats could call the Republican job on that one cynical.

The school aid bill seemed to have a chance of passing both houses if no one tried to tack on an amendment forbidding the use of any federal money to build new schools in states which still had segregated schools.

It was clearly recognized that if that happened, Senate Democrats from the South would have killed the whole program with a filibuster. But House Republicans didn't wait for that.

Last week the House approved the antisegregation amendment, with 144 Republicans and 77 Democrats voting for it, while 46 Republicans joined 146 Democrats in voting against it.

Those Republicans and Democrats who voted for the amendment could go back home at election time and tell the Negroes in their districts they did their best to keep segregated states from getting school aid money.

But then came the vote on the whole bill. It was killed when 119 House Republicans joined 105 Democrats in voting against it. The vote for it: 119 Democrats and 75 Republicans.

So the Republicans outnumbeo the Democrats in voting for the amendment—which was sure to get the bill killed in the Senate—and then in voting to kill the bill anyway before it got to the Senate.

Effects of Steel Strike Soon May Be Felt

Round about Fayette County there is little talk about the steel strike; nor has any special effect been noticed here as yet. A rural community like ours is among the last to feel it.

In scores of other places however, especially some of the more populous areas, reports are beginning to drift in that business is beginning to notice what has happened, not so much from the 650,000 strikers as from the rumors of other industries, dependent upon supplies of steel for their operation, which are preparing for lay-offs of many, if not all, of their workmen if there is no indication of a settlement soon.

It is generally recognized that among the world's industrial giants, the American steel industry is the largest. When it stops operation the adverse effect becomes noticeable in the nation's economy very soon.

Construction and rail equipment industries soon become severely handicapped. A shutdown of the steel industry for a month to six weeks will find most of the big users of steel at a halt. This means a stoppage in the nation's construction and expansion operations. The unemployment which follows soon would be felt in retail business.

It is gratifying, of course, that in capitalistic America this protest by the nation's third largest union is orderly and according to law, while in the so-called workers' paradises of communism, such as Poland, the strikers are victims of machine guns and tanks.

While this presents in dramatic outline the fact that only in the free Western nations do industrial workers have power and liberty, the domestic outlook is not a happy one. A full 40 per cent of all American industry depends on steel for its basic raw materials.

The outlook is not good for other reasons. For some weeks it has been gossiped about that because some inventories were high there were those who thought a steel strike would be a "good thing" for business. Both steel and the union owe it to the country to clear this ugly talk out of the way. It would be most unfortunate for the American system if the people ever came to believe that strikes were in any manner manipulated for the benefit of a few.

Furthermore both steel and the union owe it to their country to reach an agreement which will not touch off the dangerous acceleration of inflation. Any agreement would bring about some increase in costs, wages, and retail prices. One selfishly arrived at could be as damaging as a long strike.

He Fears Not Being Good

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—There is a saying that, except for doctors, actors are among the world's worst hypochondriacs.

It is easy to see how a doctor, surrounded all day by ill health can become a hypochondriac. Let him get even a degree of fever, and he can suspect a thousand things that may be wrong with him.

But why actors?

"It's the tension they live under," said Henry Fonda. "The theater is exacting. The necessity of making eight performances a week, month after month if you've got a hit play, gets you to worrying about your health.

"Even a sneeze will start you to brooding. Gradually, against your own better judgment, you turn into a hypochondriac."

Fonda himself, however, seems to have the durability of a draft horse. He played "Mister Roberts" on Broadway more than 1,000 times without missing a performance.

After appearing in more than 60 films and dozens of plays, Fonda has joined the growing ranks of stars who have formed their own companies to produce their own pictures.

He is refreshingly frank about why he finally turned producer.

"It's about the only way you can make any money and save it," he said. "You pay regular income tax on your salary. But on the profits of a picture you make as head of your own company you have to pay only a corporate tax. There's a big difference."

Fonda is president of Orion Productions, a title he picked merely because he didn't want to use his own name.

His first venture will be certainly modest from a financial standpoint. He is starring in a screen adaptation of Reginald Rose's television play, "12 Angry Men," a psychological study of an all-male jury trying a slum kid for murder.

The film is being shot in a studio here on a budget of $370,000, an amount Cecil B. DeMille might spend on a single scene.

So far Fonda says he hasn't found much difficulty adjusting to his dual role as producer-actor.

Fonda, who came from the Nebraska prairies, started out to be a newspaperman but couldn't find a job in that field. He worked as a physical training instructor, iceman, window dresser, garage mechanic and clerk before he became an actor.

Now ranked with Frederic March as one of the most versatile men in his profession, he is deeply serious about acting. The tribute he draws most often from other actors is this: "The guy has integrity."

Critics often have remarked that, like his friend, Jimmy Stewart, he has the ability to look effortless.

"It should look effortless," he admitted. "It shouldn't look like acting. But if it actually is effortless acting its' wrong somewhere. It's hard work. If you're worth your salt as an actor, you can't let yourself get mechanized no matter how many times you play the same role.

Fonda isn't as afraid of losing fame as he is of "not being good."

"Every actor, I would think," he said quietly, has it—the fear of not being adequate."

Hoover Jr. Does Job Well

By George Sokolsky

The physical facilities of men in public office seem to bother political opponents more these days than seem to be warranted by the facts of life. For instance, I note this paragraph in "The New York Times":

"His "(Herbert Hoover Jr.'s) shyness derives from two disconnected events. Deafened as a boy, Mr. Hoover must depend on a hearing aid. This puts a halter on easy conversation."

I have been conversing with this man these past 20 years or more, and never have I noted that the use of a hearing aid lessened the sharpeness of his mind or his capacity for wit and humor. Bernard Baruch and Charles Edison employ hearing aids which have apparently not interfered with their careers any more than wearing eyeglasses prevents a man from reading or writing, from being a philosopher or a banker or a professor.

It used to be that when a gang wanted to smear a man, they whispered about his sex morals as was done to Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding; then it became fashionable to describe a man as a reactionary or a fascist as was done to Herbert Hoover Senior. Then men were attacked for being soft on Communists which has been said about both Harry Truman and Dwight Eisenhower. Now, it is the fashion to discover a physical defect and rake a man over the coals for that, although I must say that the rakers are not themselves anything like Adonis and some of them probably suffer from ulcers or halitosis.

It would appear that Herbert Hoover, Jr., has displeased those guardians of the State Department who look back to the halcyon days of Dean Acheson as the time when ideas were batted about at all levels and some were even activated, to use such parlance. Well, those were wonderful days and we are today paying a heavy price for the luxury of letting free minds play endlessly with possibilities and probabilities but avoiding realities, resulting, when the score is added up, in a series of difficulties which are proving very costly,.

"Thus, "The New York Times" article says:

"His warmest admirers do not credit Mr. Hoover with imagination or sureness of touch in dealing with political problems. He is not an idea man, as Dean Acheson was in the same job. His main strength lies in administration, and in carrying out policies once they have been decided."

The job for which the government hired Herbert Hoover, Jr. is administration of a sprawling, uncoordinated department in charge of the very serious business of foreign relations. So far as a box score can be arranged, Herbert Hoover Jr. has not made more errors than President Eisenhower or Secretary Dulles, it being take for granted that changes are so rapid today that it is not always possible to meet each situation as was possible perhaps in the time of Talleyrand and Castlereagh when statesmen knew each other and knew what they were talking about.

Today, suddenly a Khrushchev or a Nasser appears on the scene and all the presumptions of a month ago are no longer in focus at all. Also, it is necessary to walk warily for if we are not actually on the brink of the horrible atomic war, we are never too far away from it.

Take Nasser as an example. It is believed by some experts on Egypt that until about a week ago, Nasser was talking under a terrific pressure from intensive nationalists. Now that he has become president after a one-candidate election, it is believed that he is likely to be more mallable if that is the word. At any rate, he is more likely, these people believe, not to want to drive the United States to an utterly antagonistic position.

On the other hand, you never can tell and unless this country means to make war over the Middle East situation, it is wisest to wait a while longer to see just what develops. The argument against that is that we waited too long about China in the days of General Marshall and the Communists captured the country.

Final decisions concerning American policy on the Eisenhower administration are not made in the State Department. They are made in the National Security Council and the White House. But the State Department does need competent and constructive administration and that Herbert Hoover Jr. can give it.

Ohio Polio List Drops Sharply

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Department of Health lists 46 cases of polio in the state this year compared with 145 cases reported in the same period last year.

Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, state health director said the figures represent cases in all age groups, and are no index to the effectiveness of the Salk vaccine. Only school age children and pregnant women received the vaccine.

Generally, he said, the case figures for the polio season this year are lower than in four years.

Exercise Is A Help In Asthma Recovery

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Special exercises can play an important role in recovery among asthmatics. Some of these exercises may even help relieve an attack.

Asthmatics, whether infants or elderly adults, are diaphragmatic cripples. For children and young adults, suitable breathing exercises help prevent chronic swelling and deformity of the chest.

Here are some exercises:

Have the youngster exhale as slowly and as completely as possbile from 10 to 20 times each morning and evening. He can help the exhaling process by pressing inward on his lower anterior ribs with both hands.

By making a sort of game of it, you can get him to do the exercises more readily and at the same time insure complete exhalation. Let him blow a piece of paper, a ping-pong ball or a feather across a table.

Some doctors advise letting the young patient blow a pinwheel as long and as fast as possible. When breathing in, the breaths should be of normal depths rather than forced as is the exhalation.

Playing "wheelbarrow" also is recommended by some doctors. In this game, the child walks on his hands while his legs are held by another youngster.

Here's a useful exercise to relieve a youngster in status asthmaticus which you can use if your doctor recommends it:

Brace one leg on a chair, then jackknife the child at the knees over your leg. This causes his body to fall perpendicularly and the force of gravity helps in filling the heart.

Breathing also is shifted to abdominal from thoracic by the pressure of the abdominal viscera on the diaphragm.

The youngster probably will cry and thrash about. But that's usually all right. The more he struggles, the more quickly the paroxysm will be over.

Defective Valve Blamed for Blast

CINCINNATI (AP)—An apartment house explosion which killed one occupant and injured 19 others last June 12 was caused by a defective safety valve.

That was the report yesterday by George Keller, superintendent of city air pollution control and heating inspection. He conferred with heating officials here on new laws to prevent similar accidents.

Cincy Robbery Admitted Hoax

CINCINNATI (AP)—Edward Yahn, 26-year-old night attendant at a service station here, told police yesterday he was robbed of $214.

But police said Yahn later admitted under questioning the story was bogus, and showed detectives where he had hidden the money. Investigators said he told them he took the money because he had "a lot of bills to pay and wanted to get married." He was charged with making a false crime report.

Contrary to previous evidence, scientists have found that individual dreams can last as long as an hour.

The Nation Today

James Marlow

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—What a presidential illness means — in drift and lack of leadership — is illustrated by President Eisenhower's bleated efforts in behalf of his foreign aid and federal aid to education programs.

While he was recovering from his June 9 operation, and was not here to use personal pressure, both houses chopped down the money he wanted for foreign aid. And his House Republicans had a big hand in killing his school aid proposals.

It is not certain that he would have used personal pressure if he had been here.

Robert Donovan, in his recent book — "Eisenhower: The Inside Story"—says that right after Eisenhower took office in 1953 he decided the best thing to do in the face of mounting troubles was to "maintain a silence 'of confidence.'"

Eisenhower apparently has decided he had better not remain silent now after seeing the cuts being made in foreign aid and the destruction of the school aid program.

Republic congressional leaders who visited him at Gettysburg yesterday said he is "irritated" with the Democratic Congress. the Democrats have a thin majority there, they run it. But if he tries to use them as a campaign target, they have ammunition to fire back.

It's the performance of his own Republicans — the way they've thwarted him and sometimes led the parade in doing it. There's no mystery about why they want him to run again: he's the best insurance for their own re-election.

But it is ironic they should be so anxious for his continued leadership and still do to him what they did on the education bill. The Democrats could call the Republican job on that one cynical.

The school aid bill seemed to have a chance of passing both houses if no one tried to tack on an amendment forbidding the use of any federal money to build new schools in states which still had segregated schools.

It was clearly recognized that if that happened, Senate Democrats from the South would have killed the whole program with a filibuster. But House Republicans didn't wait for that.

Last week the House approved the antisegregation amendment, with 144 Republicans and 77 Democrats voting for it, while 46 Republicans joined 146 Democrats in voting against it.

Those Republicans and Democrats who voted for the amendment could go back home at election time and tell the Negroes in their districts they did their best to keep segregated states from getting school aid money.

But then came the vote on the whole bill. It was killed when 119 House Republicans joined 105 Democrats in voting against it. The vote for it: 119 Democrats and 75 Republicans.

So the Republicans outnumbed the Democrats in voting for the amendment—which was sure to get the bill killed in the Senate—and then in voting to kill the bill anyway before it got to the Senate.

Atomic, Electronic Marvels Play Roles in Planning for Future

By SAM DAWSON

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Space travel, earth satellites, rockets, missiles — all the electronic and atomic marvels of a new age—make up one of today's fastest spreading branches of the aircraft industry.

"And it's just a growing boy so far", says a West Coast aviation official. "It still has to mature."

Production, employment, spending in these fields are increasing rapidly—in some instances doubling each year for the last four.

What was about 1 per cent of the total aircraft business six years ago is now estimated to account for 15 per cent of the industry's budget of sales and perhaps more of its spending.

Work in these fields is scattered over the nation and includes other than aviation companies. But it is an especially fast growing part of the West Coast's all-important aircraft industry, stretching from Seattle to San Diego. Most companies along the coast are in some phase of the field and some have been in it for 14 years or more.

One fifth of Convair's employes are engaged in work on missile, rocket or space travel projects, J. V. Naish, executive vice president of the Convair division of General Dynamics, says here. And since Convair has many suppliers of parts, uncounted others also contribute to this work.

"Convair is studying satellites", he said, "as well as working on a nuclear powered plane. It expects to be even more deeply involved in the missile program, including the intercontinental ones on which it is now working. It has established an astronautic (space travel) division as part of its research program."

Seventeen thousand or more employees of North American Aviation, in the Los Angeles area and elsewhere in the nation, are employed in its missile development, rocketdyne and autonetics divisions.

"Guided missiles and their cousins are now fast becoming an industry of their own", says R. A. Lambeth, vice president and treasurer of North American Aviation. "The industry is far from mature yet. It will continue to grow."

This company is now preparing to make large rocket engines in a 13 million dollar plant the government is building at Neosho, Mo. It is also making nuclear reactors for electrical energy and for use in medicine and science.

Douglas Aircraft starts production this year on nike-type missiles in a government owned plant at Charlotte, N.C., like the missiles rolling off its Santa Monica production lines the last two years. Altogether it is working on eight major missile projects.

In Seattle, Boeing engineers and production staff work on missile projects and prepare for the coming atomic age.

Lockheed will build a plant in Georgia to work on problems of building atomic planes. Vitro Corp. of America will study shielding and radiation problems involved in such a plane.

Dr. Lawrence Burris Installed As New President of Jaycees

Dr. Lawrence Burris, 1034 Lakeview Ave., was getting down to business today in his new position as president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce here.

Dr. Burris was sworn in at informal ceremonies at the group's monthly dinner meeting. Other new officers installed at the same time are Richard Willis Jr., first vice-president; Dave Six, second vice-president; Dr. William Lawyer, treasurer; and Ralph Cook, secretary.

New board members in addition to the officers are Bill Williams, Hal Summers and the immediate past president, Bob Callison. Callison was named state director by the board. In this capacity, he will represent the group at state and district Jaycee meetings.

Formal membership in the unit was given at the meeting to Marlin Reno, Dr. Robert Harris and Dwight Duff.

The Fourth of July celebration chairman, Frank Weade, told the meeting he was "gratified with the results" and added that he was "particularly pleased with the comments." he had heard about the program.

* * *

PROFITS from concession sales at the event, which will help pay for the program's fireworks display, totalled $174, it was revealed.

The Jaycees will run a "dunking booth" again at this year's Fair here, it was agreed at the meeting. A Jaycee spokesman described the "ducking booth" for the uninitiated as being "built on the hit-the-bullseye-and-duck-the-gal principal."

Dr. Burris, getting underway quickly with his presidential duties, announced a full slate of committee heads at the session.

Among them are: Jim Schwart leadership training; Frank Weade, agriculture and conservation; Horace Jacobs, distinguished service awards; Marlin Reno, civic improvement; Bob Tice, membership and assimilation; John Craig, public relations; Dick Arnott, sports; Clarence Yahn, youth activities; J. O. Garringer, ways and means; Dr. Robert Harris, Bob Scouts; Dr. Robert Anderson, Americanism; and Bob Boyd, house and social.

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—An Allen County common pleas jury was to hear opening testimony today in the first degree murder trial of Kenneth J. Orth, 25, Marion, charged with shooting John R. Monney, 22, during a holdup here 18 months ago.

The jury Tuesday visited the GNG Cafe where the shooting occurred Dec. 10, 1954. Orth is accused of being one of three bandits who robbed the cafe of $2,000 in cash.

The trial started Tuesday.

William Francis Swearingen, 27, of Marion, will be tried on the murder charge after Orth. Duane C. Packer, 26, also of Marion, the third member of the trio, is serving a sentence in Ohio Penitentiary for a Marion bank robbery.

Seventeen thousand or more employees of North American Aviation, in the Los Angeles area and elsewhere in the nation, are employed in its missile development, rocketdyne and autonetics divisions.

"Guided missiles and their cousins are now fast becoming an industry of their own", says R. A. Lambeth, vice president and treasurer of North American Aviation. "The industry is far from mature yet. It will continue to grow."

This company is now preparing to make large rocket engines in a 13 million dollar plant the government is building at Neosho, Mo. It is also making nuclear reactors for electrical energy and for use in medicine and science.

Douglas Aircraft starts production this year on nike-type missiles in a government owned plant at Charlotte, N.C., like the missiles rolling off its Santa Monica production lines the last two years. Altogether it is working on eight major missile projects.

In Seattle, Boeing engineers and production staff work on missile projects and prepare for the coming atomic age.

Lockheed will build a plant in Georgia to work on problems of building atomic planes. Vitro Corp. of America will study shielding and radiation problems involved in such a plane.

Dr. Lawrence Burris Installed As New President of Jaycees

Dr. Lawrence Burris, 1034 Lakeview Ave., was getting down to business today in his new position as president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce here.

Dr. Burris was sworn in at informal ceremonies at the group's monthly dinner meeting. Other new officers installed at the same time are Richard Willis Jr., first vice-president; Dave Six, second vice-president; Dr. William Lawyer, treasurer; and Ralph Cook, secretary.

New board members in addition to the officers are Bill Williams, Hal Summers and the immediate past president, Bob Callison. Callison was named state director by the board. In this capacity, he will represent the group at state and district Jaycee meetings.

Formal membership in the unit was given at the meeting to Marlin Reno, Dr. Robert Harris and Dwight Duff.

The Fourth of July celebration chairman, Frank Weade, told the meeting he was "gratified with the results" and added that he was "particularly pleased with the comments." he had heard about the program.

* * *

PROFITS from concession sales at the event, which will help pay for the program's fireworks display, totalled $174, it was revealed.

The Jaycees will run a "dunking booth" again at this year's Fair here, it was agreed at the meeting. A Jaycee spokesman described the "ducking booth" for the uninitiated as being "built on the hithe - bullseye - and - duck - the gal principal."

Dr. Burris, getting underway quickly with his presidential duties, announced a full slate of committee heads at the session.

Among them are: Jim Schwart leadership training; Frank Weade, agriculture and conservation; Horace Jacobs, distinguished service awards; Marlin Reno, civic improvement; Bob Tice, membership and assimilation; John Craig, public relations; Dick Arnott, sports; Clarence Yahn, youth activities; J. O. Garringer, ways and means; Dr. Robert Harris, Bob Scouts; Dr Robert Anderson, Americanism; and Bob Boyd, house and social.

Do You Know That You Can Dry
3600 lbs. Of Wet Clothes from just one cylinder of Skelgas?

And it costs you only pennies a day to use Skelgas in cylinders. You can actually cook with Skelgas for less than 3c a meal . . . or dry clothes for less than 5c a load . . . or heat water for less than 7c a day.

Why More Than 500,000 Families Choose Skelgas Over All Others:

Skelgas offers a complete line of ranges, dryers, water heaters . . . the world's largest-selling LP-Gas appliances, priced to fit any budget or need!

Skelgas guarantees pure fuel and full weight in each cylinder of Skelgas . . . because Skelgas is the only company that checks and controls the gas from the well to your home. Another Skelgas extra that gives "dollars-ahead" performance.

Skelgas was built on service! You get regular free checks of cylinders and equipment . . . and you get regular free delivery of the cylinders. These are just two services that make Skelgas the outstanding name in LP-Gas!

Lioness Club Holds Annual Business Session

The regular dinner meeting of the Lioness Club was held at the Washington Country Club Tuesday evening.

The dinner was preceded by the Salute to the Flag led by the president, Mrs. Ray French, the invocation by Mrs. Paul Van Voorhis and the singing of America.

Decorations on the dinner tables featured wrought iron containers of shasta daisies and yellow tapers in wrought iron holders.

Following the congenial dinner hour Mrs. French called the annual business session to order and following the report of the secretary, Mrs. Richard Patton, Mrs. Charles Buxton, treasurer, gave her report both of which were accepted as read.

A discussion was held on the two projects to raise money and it was decided to adopt them for the year.

Mrs. Harry Thrailkill gave an explanation and a talk on the philanthropic project which is transportation of eye cases to Columbus, particularly for members, during the past year and stated as the new chairman that 22 cases had been transported during May and June.

At the close of the lengthy meeting informal visiting was enjoyed.

Mrs. Carl Barr of Columbus, was included as a guest.

The committee for the evening was composed of Mrs. John Bath, chairman and her assistants, Mrs. Paul Van Voorhis, Mrs. Thomas Hancock, and Mrs. Charles Griffiths.

Class Teacher Is Hostess at Lovely Event

The members of combined Gleaners and Bible Classes of McNair Memorial Presbyterian Church enjoyed a pleasant social event which was highlighted with a delicious covered dish dinner at the home of the class teacher, Mrs. Dewey Bumgarner, Tuesday evening.

The dinner was served buffet from one long table centered with summer flowers and the members found their places at small tables on the enclosed porch, also centered with bouquets of flowers for a most pleasant dinner hour.

Later Mrs. Bumgarner conducted interesting contests and awards were presenged Mrs. Fanny Johnson and Mrs. Laura Dellinger.

An old fashioned "Spelling Bee", using a McGuffey's Speller, was also most pleasant and Mrs. Laura Dellinger was the champion speller.

The remainder of the evening was spent in the singing of hymns accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bumgarner, and informal visiting.

Season canned creamed corn with chili powder and serve with tamales and a green salad for a good supper main course.

Olla Podrida Club Members Hold Meeting

Members of the Olla Podrida Club of Bloomingburg held the July meeting at the country home of Mrs. Don Thornton with eight members present.

Miss Olive Swope, president, called the meeting to order with Mrs. Howard Nessell, program leader, using as the topic "American Folklore".

Mrs. John Groff read an article on "Folk Music" and pointed out that America has two types of folk songs, those brought from England and Scotland and those intense spirituals of the Southern Negro.

Miss Catherine Gossard read a paper on "Folk Songs" during which she spoke of many of the songs of the South express a deep religious faith and have been interpreted by such singers as Marian Anderson, Roland Hayes and the Hal Johnson Choir.

Mrs. Harry Elliott based her part of the program on "Our Roots In the Past" and read "Barbry Ellen" and John Henry, to represent the ancient ballad; a modern ballad, "The Mountain Whipporwill" by Stephen Vincent Benet and Roark Bradford's "How Come Christmas".

At the close of this literary program which was most interesting as well as entertaining, Mrs. Thornton served tempting refreshments and informal visiting was enjoyed.

Mrs. Dale Thornton and children were included as guests.

SILK ORGANZA AND VAL LACE, all of a delicate eggshell coloring, fashion this short evening dress designed by Karen Stark. The skirt is shaped with all-around pleats from a satin cummerbund.

Poet's Corner

DON'T LOSE YOUR SPARKLE

If you want to stay young,
As the years unfold,—
Don't lose your sparkle
When you get old;
Don't forget how to laugh
Don't forget how to grin;
There's no better way
To let the sunshine in

Your calendar years
May be three score and ten;
Don't order your casket
And say "Amen."
You are just in your prime,
And can have a lot of fun,
If you don't lose your sparkle
And think you are done.

Don't lose your sparkle
And you will find
Life's biggest clouds
Are silver lined;
You can be just as sweet
When you're eight; two,
As you used to be
As an ingenue.

Engagement Is Announced No Date Set for Wedding

Miss Natalie McLean

Mr. and Mrs. Gene R. McLean of Milledgeville are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Natalie, to Mr. Loren Russell Klontz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klontz of near Milledgeville.

The bride-elect will be a member of the 1957 graduating class of Washington C. H. High School.

Mr. Klontz a graduate of Washington C. H. High School in the Class of 1954 is associated with the office force at the Armco Drainage and Metal Products, Incorporated.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Class Teacher Is Hostess at Lovely Event

The members of combined Gleaners and Bible Classes of McNair Memorial Presbyterian Church enjoyed a pleasant social event which was highlighted with a delicious covered dish dinner at the home of the class teacher, Mrs. Dewey Bumgarner, Tuesday evening.

The dinner was served buffet from one long table centered with summer flowers and the members found their places at small tables on the enclosed porch, also centered with bouquets of flowers for a most pleasant dinner hour.

Later Mrs. Bumgarner conducted interesting contests and awards were presenged Mrs. Fanny Johnson and Mrs. Laura Dellinger.

An old fashioned "Spelling Bee", using a McGuffey's Speller, was also most pleasant and Mrs. Laura Dellinger was the champion speller.

The remainder of the evening was spent in the singing of hymns accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bumgarner, and informal visiting.

Season canned creamed corn with chili powder and serve with tamales and a green salad for a good supper main course.

Olla Podrida Club Members Hold Meeting

Members of the Olla Podrida Club of Bloomingburg held the July meeting at the country home of Mrs. Don Thornton with eight members present.

Miss Olive Swope, president, called the meeting to order with Mrs. Howard Nessell, program leader, using as the topic "American Folklore".

Mrs. John Groff read an article on "Folk Music" and pointed out that America has two types of folk songs, those brought from England and Scotland and those intense spirituals of the Southern Negro.

Miss Catherine Gossard read a paper on "Folk Songs" during which she spoke of many of the songs of the South express a deep religious faith and have been interpreted by such singers as Marian Anderson, Roland Hayes and the Hal Johnson Choir.

Mrs. Harry Elliott based her part of the program on "Our Roots In the Past" and read "Barbry Ellen" and John Henry, to represent the ancient ballad; a modern ballad, "The Mountain Whipporwill" by Stephen Vincent Benet and Roark Bradford's "How Come Christmas".

At the close of this literary program which was most interesting as well as entertaining, Mrs. Thornton served tempting refreshments and informal visiting was enjoyed.

Mrs. Dale Thornton and children were included as guests.

SILK ORGANZA AND VAL LACE, all of a delicate eggshell coloring, fashion this short evening dress designed by Karen Stark. The skirt is shaped with all-around pleats from a satin cummerbund.

DON'T LOSE YOUR SPARKLE

If you want to stay young,
As the years unfold,—
Don't lose your sparkle
When you get old;
Don't forget how to laugh
Don't forget how to grin;
There's no better way
To let the sunshine in.

Your calendar years
May be three score and ten;
Don't order your casket
And say "Amen."
You are just in your prime,
And can have a lot of fun,
If you don't lose your sparkle
And think you are done.

Don't lose your sparkle
And you will find
Life's biggest clouds
Are silver lined;
You can be just as sweet
When you're eight; two,
As you used to be
As an ingenue.

Fertilizer Plant Here Is Now Being Expanded To Increase Production

The American Agricultural Chemical Co. today is starting an expansion of its Washington C. H. plant on the Robinson Rd. just east of the city limits.

Announcement of the project came from the company's general offices, 50 Church St., New York. The American Agricultural Chemical Co. is the world's oldest and largest fertilier manufacturer.

Clarence W. Maddox, manager of the plant here, said the area for the expansion is now being graded with bulldoers. The company announcement said "construction, which will begin immediately, will include vital changes and improvements in both the factory and equipment."

The new building is to be 160 by 180 feet.

The company announcement also said that "upon completion of the siable contract, increased production will provide considerably augmented service for the farmers of the Washington C. H. area."

Harold Beatty, a former resident of Washington C. H. who is now the manager of the Cincinnati branch of AAC which includes the Washington C. H. plant, has been here frequently looking over the site and checking on progress with Maddox.

* * *

THEY INDICATED that the new building would be used primarily for storage and shipping of the fertilier. Although it will be equipped with the most modern facilities for handling fertilier, it is understood that most of the new equipment will be in the fertilier manufacturing plant adjoining it. The announcement from the general offices did not say what changes were planned for the plant building.

Neither did the company announcement give any cost estimates, but the building permit filed by the Union Township Zoning Board of Appeals with County Auditor Harry Allen was for $180,000.

The American Agricultural Chemical Co. purchased the facilities of the former M. Hamm Co. in June, 1955. Major changes and improvements have been made in the factory and equipment since that time by the AAC Co. The additional improvements and new facilities which will be built under the new contract are needed urgently to meet the heavily increased demand for the Company's products, the announcement said.

* * *

FOR THE PAST year the AAC plant has been producing an increased volume of Agrico and AA Fertiliers.

The new construction, which will include moderniation of the production and shipping facilities, is to be completed during the fall fertilier season to insure greater service to the farmers in this area.

For over 50 years, AAC has served Ohio farmers from factories at Cincinnati and Cleveland and since early in 1954 from the company's plant at Cairo, north of Lima.

Acquisition of the facilities at Washington C. H. enabled the company to broaden its service to farmers in south Central Ohio. An office is maintained by AAC Co. at the local plant.

With its extensive mining operations in Florida, AAC is a leading miner and refiner of pebble phosphate rock, from which it produces superphosphate, a basic fertilier itself and also the principal ingredient in mixed fertiliers. From phosphate rock, AAC also produces pure elemental phosphorus by an electro-thermal process developed by the company. Elemental phosphorus, in addition to various industrial uses, is used in the production of phosphoric acid, "the chemical of a thousand uses." The AAC also produces a wide range of other industrial chemicals, many of which are derived in one way or another from phosphate rock, one of the most basic and versatile of materials serving the needs of man.

The products of the Washington C. H. factory are marketed under the brand names Agrico and AA Mixed Fertilizers, 18 percent normal superphosphate and AA quality ground phosphate rock.

Jet Crash at Wilmington Kills 2

Wreckage of Trainer Plane at Clinton Air Force Base

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — A practice-landing pass at Clinton County Air Force Base in a T-33 jet trainer ended Tuesday night in a crash that killed the two Air Force men aboard.

The plane was based at Wright-Patterson AFB, Dayton, where officials identified the men as Capt. R. C. Styles, 32, Fairborn, and Maj. W. F. Lind, Dayton.

The State Highway Patrol said the plane crashed and burned on the M. R. Denver estate adjoining the eastern end of the field. The fire damaged woodland on the estate.

The patrol said the aircraft was practicing "flameout" landings when it crashed about 9:30 p. m.

The annual growth in world population has increased from about 20 to about 40 million a year in the past 20 years.

Jet Crash at Wilmington Kills 2

Wreckage of Trainer Plane at Clinton Air Force Base

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — A practice-landing pass at Clinton County Air Force Base in a T-33 jet trainer ended Tuesday night in a crash that killed the two Air Force men aboard.

The plane was based at Wright-Patterson AFB, Dayton, where officials identified the men as Capt. R. C. Styles, 32, Fairborn, and Maj. W. F. Lind, Dayton.

The State Highway Patrol said the plane crashed and burned on the M. R. Denver estate adjoining the eastern end of the field. The fire damaged woodland on the estate.

The patrol said the aircraft was practicing "flameout" landings when it crashed about 9:30 p. m.

The annual growth in world population has increased from about 20 to about 40 million a year in the past 20 years.

All-Star Game Proves Reds No 'Fluke Team'

WILLIE? HEY, HE SURE DID! New York's "Say, Hey" Kid, Willie Mays romps in with a pinch-hit home run, scoring Ken Boyer ahead of him, to push the National League to a 3-0 lead over the American in the fourth inning of the 23rd annual All-Star Game in Washington, Tuesday. Willie's blast landed in the left field stands. Boyer makes the traditional "handy" greeting while catcher Yogi Berra watches. The Nationals won, 7-3.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1956 All-Star game, won by the National League Tuesday 7-3, furnished proof it is no accident that the Cincinnati Redlegs are in first place in their circuit.

Furthermore, it is the consensus of Brooklyn Manager Walter Alston, Cincinnati's own pilot Birdie Tebbetts, a majority of the writers and the 28,843 spectators that the Redlegs are going to be tougher than ever.

Alston, who directed the winning National League All-Stars, praised the six Cincinnati players in action, five in the starting lineup.

Noting that three — first baseman Ted Kluszewski, shortstop Roy McMillan and second baseman Johnny Temple — accounted for six of the National's 11 hits, scoring three runs and driving in two more, he said meaningfully:

"Their performance here should help them the rest of the season."

Kluszewski had two doubles in two times at bat and drove in a run. Temple had two hits, one RBI and a stolen base, and McMillan had two singles. In addition, Temple and McMillan executed the only double play of the game to snuff out the American's biggest threat.

"I'm proud of my guys," said Tebbetts, the Nationals' first base coach. "A lot of wise-guys snickered when all those men of mine were voted to the All-Stars. After what they did, we don't have to apologize to anybody. This was good experience for my players. It should give them the confidence they need for the second half of the race."

Except for third baseman Ken Boyer of the Cardinals, one of the stars of the game, only McMillan and Temple played throughout for the Nationals. Alston employed 17 players as compared with 21 used by Casey Stengel of the Americans.

As Alston saw it, the key hit in the game that produced the Nationals' sixth victory in the last seven games, and their 10th in the series of 23, was the homer by Willie Mays, a bench warmer until the fourth inning.

The Nationals held a slim 1-0 lead when Mays came up to bat for Gus Bell after Boyer had slashed the second of his three straight singles.

Left-hander Whitey Ford of the Yankees was on the mound, having replaced starter Billy Pierce of the White Sox at the beginning of the inning. Pierce and Bob Friend had waged a fine pitching duel for three innings, Billy yielding the only run that far in the third.

Mays missed the first pitch, then walloped a 400-foot home run halfway up the left-center field bleachers at Griffith Stadium to give the Nationals a 3-0 bulge. The Americans never caught up, although Ted Williams' two-run circuit blow in the sixth, immediately followed by Mickey Mantle's homer, cut the winners' margin to 5-3. The Nationals had tallied single runs in the fifth and sixth.

Wilmington Colt Cops Pacing Stake

COLUMBUS (AP)—Edgewood Hedrick, bay son of Hedrick, owned by Dr. William L. Regan of Wilmington, won the Ohio Colt Racing Assn. Stake for 2-year-old pacers in straight heats last night at Hilliards Raceway.

In the first heat, Clayton Cox drove the juvenile sidewheeler to victory, and in the second heat Ray Rankin brought Edgewood Hedrick home in a three - horse photo finish.

Machen Favorite In Valdes Bout

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Young Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., ruled a slight favorite to keep his perfect record intact when he faces Nino Valdes of Cuba in a nationally televised heavyweight fight here tonight.

Machen has won 14 in a row and scored 11 knockouts in his brief but brilliant career and probably will be 7-5 favorite by fight time. He'll be going after his second straight over the 31-year-old Valdes, who apparently reached his peak on Aug. 11, 1953, in this same ring when he beat Ezzard Charles.

Seals Thump Medics, 18-0, at City Park

The Insurance Association Seals rode herd on the Medics Tuesday evening at the City Park, handing them an 18-0 defeat. It was the Seals' fifth victory of the season.

Ronnie Wilt led his team to the victory, striking out 15 men in the six-inning contest. During one midgame stretch, Wilt struck out nine batters in order.

Of the whole Medics nine, only Larry Kilgore was able to pick up a hit. Kilgore bumped out a single for his team.

John Campbell led the Seals on offense, picking up five hits in five trips to the plate, and coming home for three runs. Ron Wilt also came home three times for his team in the fray.

Ken Boyer Tagged Star Of All Stars

WASHINGTON (AP) — Before the All-Star Game, the fans were talking about all those Cincinnati Reds and such sluggers as Stan Musial, Ted Williams and Mickey Mantle.

The half-dozen Reds, Musial, Mantle and Williams came through in style but Ken Boyer, the St. Louis third baseman was as much a star as any of them in his first time in the classic.

Manager Walt Alston of the victorious Nationals said if he had to single out a player as his best, it would be Boyer.

The 25-year-old major league sophomore from Berkeley, Mo., also evoked words of praise from rival manager Casey Stengel of the Americans.

"Very good boy, very good," declared Stengel, who is noted for not mentioning names. "That third base fellow cut us out of a rally or two."

Stengel meant that Boyer's fielding stopped the Americans three times before they got going.

While his defense was a highlight, Boyer also justified Alston's confidence in giving him the cleanup batting spot over such veterans as the Cardinal's Musial, Gus Bell of Cincinnati and Dale Long of Pittsburgh.

Boyer hit three straight singles and in the fifth batted in what turned out to be the winning run.

Flashes Blank Cubs With Scoring Spree

Bouncing back from their defeat by the Realtors in their last game, the Flashes went on a scoring rampage to blank the Cubs, 14 to 0, in the Little Major League game at Wilson Field Monday evening.

It was the sixth win in nine games for the Flashes and only the fourth defeat in 10 games for the Cubs. It also was the second time this season the defending champions have beaten the Cubs.

Loose play in the field, which accounted for 7 errors, was a factor in the defeat of the Cubs, but much of the credit for the victory of the Flashes must go to Jones, the hurler, who held the Cubs to 2 hits. He struck out 13 and walked only one.

Lambert and G. Naylor each for 3 hits in 4 trips and Jones, Naylor and Reiber each contributed doubles.

Livelier Bat Given Credit For Home Run Hitting Spurt

Editor's Note: Following is another in a series of articles dealing with the sharp increase of home runs being noted in the major leagues this season.

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—If the ball isn't lively, as manufacturers and league officials claim, could it be that the lively bat is producing all the home runs?

Ted Kluszewski, muscular Cincinnati first baseman, goes along with the bat theory.

"I don't think the ball is any livelier," he said. "I think it's the lighter bat. The more speed you can get with the bat at the moment of impact, the further the ball will go.

"Fellows like Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs use a 31 ounce-35 inch bat. And Stan Musial of the Cardinals gets down to 30-31 ounces. They really can whip that bat around. It doesn't work for me. I have to overpower it. I can't get more speed with a lighter bat although I use a 36 ounce bat now."

Hank Bauer goes along with the bat theory, adding "the ball seems livelier, too." Bauer said Mickey Mantle, his teammate, is using his 32-ounce bat as compared to the 34-35 ounce bat he used in the past. "The hitters get a better whip with lighter bats," said Bauer. "And the bats seem to be made better, too."

One of the smallest bats used in the majors is the 28-ounce-34 inch stick swung by Solly Hemus of the Phillies. Little Solly also hones down the handle to make it even thinner. Granny Hamner of the Phils also is in the 28-ounce class.

The contrast between the modern bat and the old models is shown by the old timer bat display that the Louisville Slugger people maintain.

Babe Ruth, for instance, once ordered a 54-ounce bat and never dipped below 40 ounces until the tail end of his career. Ty Cobb used a 42-ounce club and Home Run Baker swung a 47-ounce club. Honus Wagner used a 38-ounce bat as did Ed Delahanty and Rogers Hornsby. Cap Anson in the old days swung a 44-ounce bludgeon and Heinie Groh's famous "bottle bat" was 42-ounces, 33 inches.

The importance of whip in a bat is illustrated by the vast changes in golf clubs from the old rigid shafts to the present day models with the swing and sway style. Lack of whip was one criticism of the laminated bat.

According to the rule book "a bat shall be a smooth, rounded stick, not more than 2¾ inches in diameter at the thickest part and not more than 42 inches in length." There is no weight limit. The manufacturers claim the most difficult part of their job is to get good solid wood into a light weighted bat. Their basic rule for a good bat is "an ounce to an inch."

Elks Beat Rockets In Ding-Dong Game

The Elks racked up their third win in four games Monday evening when they edged the Rockets, 7 to 3, in a ding-dong Little Minor League game at Wilson Field.

Willis held the Rockets to a lone hit and so complete was his mastery of the pitching situation that, despite 4 errors by his mates, only 3 runs crossed the plate.

The game started with a flurry of scoring by both teams and at the end of the first inning the score was in a 3-3 deadlock. But from there on the Rockets were blanked. The Elks took a one-run lead in the third, but it still looked like anybody's game until the next inning when the Elks added 3 more in the next frame.

Rettig got the only Rocket hit and spoiled Willis' no-hitter. Wickensimer sparked the Elk attack with 3 hits in 3 times at bat.

Southern Cal Seeking New Purity Code

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California and UCLA have joined forces aimed at suspending athletic eligibility bans imposed by the Pacific Coast Conference and at drafting a new purity code.

Dr. Fred C. Fagg, president of the University of Southern California, started the move yesterday in a sharply worded telegram to Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, chairman of the presidents' council of the PCC. He suggested that the presidents meet within two weeks and agree to suspend all pending bans against athletes.

He proposed that the presidents draft a new code governing athletic scholarships and that punishment for past violations be patterned from the new code. The telegram was endorsed by Dr. Raymond B. Allen, chancellor of UCLA.

Faculty representatives have imposed fines and athletic eligibility bans against Southern California, UCLA and Washington. UCLA was banned from playing in the Rose Bowl football game for three years and Southern California and Washington for two years.

All-Star Game Proves Reds No 'Fluke Team'

WILLIE? HEY, HE SURE DID! New York's "Say, Hey" Kid, Willie Mays romps in with a pinch-hit home run, scoring Ken Boyer ahead of him, to push the National League to a 3-0 lead over the American in the fourth inning of the 23rd annual All-Star Game in Washington, Tuesday. Willie's blast landed in the left field stands. Boyer makes the traditional "handy" greeting while catcher Yogi Berra watches. The Nationals won, 7-3.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1956 All-Star game, won by the National League Tuesday 7-3, furnished proof it is no accident that the Cincinnati Redlegs are in first place in their circuit.

Furthermore, it is the consensus of Brooklyn Manager Walter Alston, Cincinnati's own pilot Birdie Tebbetts, a majority of the writers and the 28,843 spectators that the Redlegs are going to be tougher than ever.

Alston, who directed the winning National League All-Stars, praised the six Cincinnati players in action, five in the starting lineup.

Noting that three — first baseman Ted Kluszewski, shortstop Roy McMillan and second baseman Johnny Temple — accounted for six of the National's 11 hits, scoring three runs and driving in two more, he said meaningfully:

"Their performance here should help them the rest of the season."

Kluszewski had two doubles in two times at bat and drove in a run. Temple had two hits, one RBI and a stolen base, and McMillan had two singles. In addition, Temple and McMillan executed the only double play of the game to snuff out the American's biggest threat.

"I'm proud of my guys," said Tebbetts, the Nationals' first base coach. "A lot of wise-guys snickered when all those men of mine were voted to the All-Stars. After what they did, we don't have to apologize to anybody. This was good experience for my players. It should give them the confidence they need for the second half of the race."

Except for third baseman Ken Boyer of the Cardinals, one of the stars of the game, only McMillan and Temple played throughout for the Nationals. Alston employed 17 players as compared with 21 used by Casey Stengel of the Americans.

As Alston saw it, the key hit in the game that produced the Nationals' sixth victory in the last seven games, and their 10th in the series of 23, was the homer by Willie Mays, a bench warmer until the fourth inning.

The Nationals held a slim 1-0 lead when Mays came up to bat for Gus Bell after Boyer had slashed the second of his three straight singles.

Left-hander Whitey Ford of the Yankees was on the mound, having replaced starter Billy Pierce of the White Sox at the beginning of the inning. Pierce and Bob Friend had waged a fine pitching duel for three innings, Billy yielding the only run that far in the third.

Mays missed the first pitch, then walloped a 400-foot home run halfway up the left-center field bleachers at Griffith Stadium to give the Nationals a 3-0 bulge. The Americans never caught up, although Ted Williams' two-run circuit blow in the sixth, immediately followed by Mickey Mantle's homer, cut the winners' margin to 5-3. The Nationals had tallied single runs in the fifth and sixth.

Machen Favorite In Valdes Bout

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Young Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., ruled a slight favorite to keep his perfect record intact when he faces Nino Valdes of Cuba in a nationally televised heavyweight fight here tonight.

Machen has won 14 in a row and scored 11 knockouts in his brief but brilliant career and probably will be 7-5 favorite by fight time. He'll be going after his second straight over the 31-year-old Valdes, who apparently reached his peak on Aug. 11, 1953, in this same ring when he beat Ezzard Charles.

Seals Thump Medics, 18-0, at City Park

The Insurance Association Seals rode herd on the Medics Tuesday evening at the City Park, handing them an 18-0 defeat. It was the Seals' fifth victory of the season.

Ronnie Wilt led his team to the victory, striking out 15 men in the six-inning contest. During one midgame stretch, Wilt struck out nine batters in order.

Of the whole Medics nine, only Larry Kilgore was able to pick up a hit. Kilgore bumped out a single for his team.

John Campbell led the Seals on offense, picking up five hits in five trips to the plate, and coming home for three runs. Ron Wilt also came home three times for his team in the fray.

While his defense was a highlight, Boyer also justified Alston's confidence in giving him the cleanup batting spot over such veterans as the Cardinal's Musial, Gus Bell of Cincinnati and Dale Long of Pittsburgh.

Boyer hit three straight singles and in the fifth batted in what turned out to be the winning run.

SHERIFF FLOWN HOME

LANCASTER — Dudley Crider, 50, Fairfield County sheriff, who suffered a stroke while vacationing in Canada, was flown home by a plane furnished by the Anchor-Hocking Glass Co. He still is in a serious condition.

Elks Beat Rockets In Ding-Dong Game

The Elks racked up their third win in four games Monday evening when they edged the Rockets, 7 to 3, in a ding-dong Little Minor League game at Wilson Field.

Willis held the Rockets to a lone hit and so complete was his mastery of the pitching situation that, despite 4 errors by his mates, only 3 runs crossed the plate.

The game started with a flurry of scoring by both teams and at the end of the first inning the score was in a 3-3 deadlock. But from there on the Rockets were blanked. The Elks took a one-run lead in the third, but it still looked like anybody's game until the next inning when the Elks added 3 more in the next frame.

Rettig got the only Rocket hit and spoiled Willis' no-hitter. Wickensimer sparked the Elk attack with 3 hits in 3 times at bat.

EARLY DECISION

WILMINGTON — Judge John H. Houston, who heard motions to dissolve a temporary injunction which is holding up construction of the swimming pool here, has promised an early decision.

Southern Cal Seeking New Purity Code

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California and UCLA have joined forces aimed at suspending athletic eligibility bans imposed by the Pacific Coast Conference and at drafting a new purity code.

Dr. Fred C. Fagg, president of the University of Southern California, started the move yesterday in a sharply worded telegram to Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, chairman of the presidents' council of the PCC. He suggested that the presidents meet within two weeks and agree to suspend all pending bans against athletes.

He proposed that the presidents draft a new code governing athletic scholarships and that punishment for past violations be patterned from the new code. The telegram was endorsed by Dr. Raymond B. Allen, chancellor of UCLA.

Faculty representatives have imposed fines and athletic eligibility bans against Southern California, UCLA and Washington. UCLA was banned from playing in the Rose Bowl football game for three years and Southern California and Washington for two years.

"ITS SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

Gov. Lausche Not Acting Like Hot Candidate

Ohio Chief's Actions Point Up Cold Attitude To US Presidency

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Frank J. Lausche, Ohio's five-term Democratic governor, always has said he is not an honest-to-goodness presidential candidate. Now he is not even acting like one.

It's true, he'll be in Chicago a month from today, lightning rod in hand. But his recent actions indicate little or no hope a chance bolt will come his way.

The big Ohio governor, with his bushy shock of graying hair, will be a popular man at the Democratic National Convention but not—it appears right now—as a potential standard-bearer.

As Ohio's "favorite son" he will go to the convention with 54 of Ohio's 58 convention votes in his pocket. With a wide-open convention in prospect, 54 votes are worth wooing.

To get those votes — assuming Lausche is out of contention early — campaign lieutenants of several leading hopefuls probably would be willing to promise anything within reason.

Lausche said at the time that he was becoming a "favorite son" candidate to put the stopper to any such "deal."

It is traditional that every bona fide candidate have a headquarters at his party's political convention. But far from having a headquarters, Lausche told newsmen the other day he doesn't yet have a sleeping room reservation in Chicago.

He "assumes" his name will be placed formally before the convention, but if he has selected the man to make his nominating speech, he isn't yet ready to announce it.

His 54 delegates will meet in Columbus next Tuesday noon at the call of Albert A. Horstman of Dayton, Ohio's Democratic national committeeman.

Strategy presumably will be discussed then.

There has been speculation whether Lausche will be able to hold his delegation as a unit. Those who are doing the wondering cite these facts:

1. As the retiring governor, he is suffering a loss of influence.

2. Because of his recent statement that he "might" consider voting with the Republicans to organize the U.S. Senate—providing, of course, he defeats GOP Sen. George H. Bender—many Democrats are angry with Lausche.

It was his controversial statement to newsmen at Atlantic City over Senate organization which led most observers to conclude that the governor has "ripped his shirt off his back" permanently with Democratic national leaders.

But while his chances for a spot on the national ticket may have gone glimmering, that pocketful of convention votes make Lausche still a man to be courted. It also helps explain why none of the leading hopefuls has teed off on him publicly.

Egypt to Receive New Submarines

CAIRO (AP)—Egypt is to receive several submarines from abroad within the next few days, the newspaper Al Shaab reports.

The paper did not specify how many subs Egypt would get or from where, but presumably they are coming from the Soviet bloc as part of the arms-for-cotton deal Egypt and Czechoslovakia made last year.

East Berlin Strike Proves Success

BERLIN (AP) — A West Berlin newspaper reports that slaughterhouse workers in Communist East Berlin have won a strike protesting an increased work quota.

The independent Telgraf said a six-hour strike last week convinced Communist officials they should drop an effort to raise work quotas by 35 per cent.

Long Distance natural gas transmission was made feasible by the development of electrically welded, seamless pipe.

"ITS SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

Gov. Lausche Not Acting Like Hot Candidate

Ohio Chief's Actions Point Up Cold Attitude To US Presidency

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Frank J. Lausche, Ohio's five-term Democratic governor, always has said he is not an honest-to-goodness presidential candidate. Now he is not even acting like one.

It's true, he'll be in Chicago a month from today, lightning rod in hand. But his recent actions indicate little or no hope a chance bolt will come his way.

The big Ohio governor, with his bushy shock of graying hair, will be a popular man at the Democratic National Convention but not—it appears right now—as a potential standard-bearer.

As Ohio's "favorite son" he will go to the convention with 54 of Ohio's 58 convention votes in his pocket. With a wide-open convention in prospect, 54 votes are worth wooing.

To get those votes — assuming Lausche is out of contention early — campaign lieutenants of several leading hopefuls probably would be willing to promise anything within reason.

Lausche said at the time that he was becoming a "favorite son" candidate to put the stopper to any such "deal."

It is traditional that every bona fide candidate have a headquarters at his party's political convention. But far from having a headquarters, Lausche told newsmen the other day he doesn't yet have a sleeping room reservation in Chicago.

He "assumes" his name will be placed formally before the convention, but if he has selected the man to make his nominating speech, he isn't yet ready to announce it.

His 54 delegates will meet in Columbus next Tuesday noon at the call of Albert A. Horstman of Dayton, Ohio's Democratic national committeeman.

Strategy presumably will be discussed then.

There has been speculation whether Lausche will be able to hold his delegation as a unit. Those who are doing the wondering cite these facts:

1. As the retiring governor, he is suffering a loss of influence.

2. Because of his recent statement that he "might" consider voting with the Republicans to organize the U.S. Senate—providing, of course, he defeats GOP Sen. George H. Bender—many Democrats are angry with Lausche.

It was his controversial statement to newsmen at Atlantic City over Senate organization which led most observers to conclude that the governor has "ripped his shirt off his back" permanently with Democratic national leaders.

But while his chances for a spot on the national ticket may have gone glimmering, that pocketful of convention votes make Lausche still a man to be courted. It also helps explain why none of the leading hopefuls has teed off on him publicly.

Egypt to Receive New Submarines

CAIRO (AP)—Egypt is to receive several submarines from abroad within the next few days, the newspaper Al Shaab reports.

The paper did not specify how many subs Egypt would get or from where, but presumably they are coming from the Soviet bloc as part of the arms-for-cotton deal Egypt and Czechoslovakia made last year.

East Berlin Strike Proves Success

BERLIN (AP) — A West Berlin newspaper reports that slaughterhouse workers in Communist East Berlin have won a strike protesting an increased work quota.

The independent Telgraf said a six-hour strike last week convinced Communist officials they should drop an effort to raise work quotas by 35 per cent.

Long Distance natural gas transmission was made feasible by the development of electrically welded, seamless pipe.

Various Titleholders Stud List of Ohio Amateur Stars

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The golden anniversary Ohio Amateur Golf Championship went into man-to-man combat today, and the match play bracket of 64 was studded with almost a score of various titleholders.

The 64 won their way into match play by scoring 159 or better in the 36-hole, two-day qualifier. Far in front of the field as the qualifying rounds ended Tuesday was a red-haired and freckled 16-year-old Columbus youth, Jack Nicklaus, state high school champion and three times winner of the "under 16" title in the state junior tournament. Nicklaus posted a score of 142 in the medal play qualifier.

That was two under par for Westbrook Country Club's 6,308-yard par-72 course and seven strokes ahead of his nearest competitors. Deadlocked in second place with 149 were Jack Zimmerman of Dayton, two-time state public links champion and runner-up for the amateur title last year; Karl Schmidt of Akron and Bob Ross Jr. of Springfield, winner of the state junior crown the last two years.

Two 18-hole matches were on tap today with defending champion Bob Rankin of Zanesville, who passed up the qualifying test in favor of two practice rounds, meeting Jim Hager of Mansfield in the opener.

Nicklaus had Bob Shave of Cleveland, former state high school champion as his opening foe; Zimmerman was opposed by Dave Ogilvie, a classy Cleveland youngster; Schmidt opposed Louis Craig of Cleveland and Ross was to meet 16-year-old Mike Podolski, Columbus public links threat.

Today's two rounds will slash to 16 the record breaking field of 218 which opened fire Monday in the qualifier. Another double round is scheduled Thursday, but Friday's semifinals and Saturdays championship will be over the 36-hole route.

Nicklaus scored seven birdies and missed par five times in the 36-hole medal test as he became the youngest entrant ever to lead the field into match play. For the first time, so far as tournament oldtimers can remember, no playoff was necessary to decide the qualifiers for the final match play berths.

Exactly 63 players shot 159 or under to move into the man-to-man bracket with Rankin, who qualified automatically.

Practically all the favorites landed among the elite although John Florio of Columbus, the 1928 and 1932 champion, failed by four strokes after soaring to 83 on the second round.

Safely in the fold, however, were Ed Koski, of Steubenville, the 36-year-old public links star who has won two national Polish golf titles; Howard Saunders of Gallipolis, runner-up in the 1953 amateur; Bob Roll of Greenville, former junior champion and 1954 runner-up; Tom Jones Jr. of Youngstown, the 1951 amateur king; Barney Hunt of Columbus, former state public links champion; Rick Jones of Youngstown, national intercollegiate champion, and Francis Cardi of Columbus, winner of the 1952 championship.

8 Women to Vie In Match Play Of State Tourney

COLUMBUS (AP) — Eight women teed off on the second round of match play in Ohio Women's Amateur Golf Championship today minus defending champion Carol Diringer, ousted yesterday.

Mrs. J. W. Labisky of Columbus, who defeated Miss Diringer, of Tiffin, one up after 19 holes, met another Columbus woman, Mrs. Robert Palmer, seven-time Franklin county champion.

Also on hand for the second 18-hole round was Barbara McIntire of Toledo and Anne Richardson of Columbus.

Miss Richardson met Mrs. Dolly McCarthy of Cincinnati, and Miss McIntire was paired with Poll Martin of St. Clairsville.

Betty Kerby of Akron met Jane McIntosh of Cincinnati in the fourth match.

Ike, Aide Rooting For Wrong Stars

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower got in some golf practice yesterday, walked about seven tenths of a mile and spent most of the afternoon watching the All-Star baseball game on television.

The 7-3 victory of the National Leaguers apparently wasn't the outcome he had been hoping for. Asked for the President's reaction, Hagerty said:

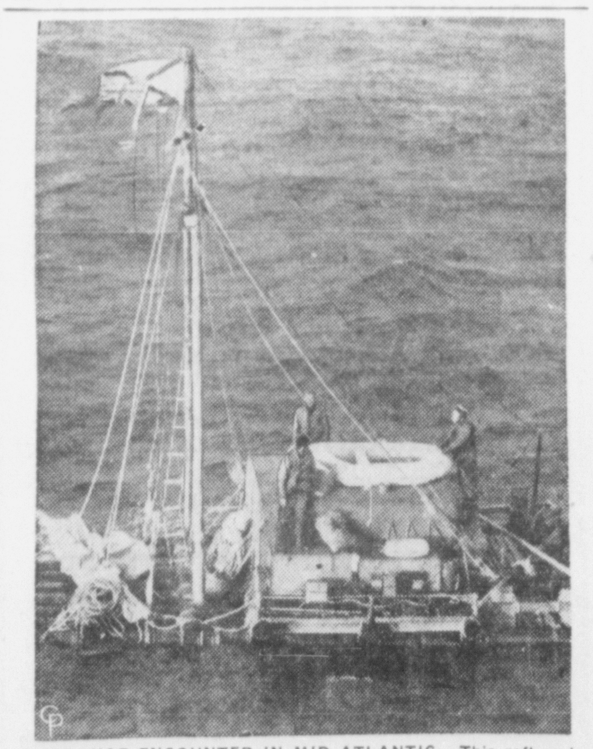

"He and I were rooting for the wrong team."

Various Titleholders Stud List of Ohio Amateur Stars

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The golden anniversary Ohio Amateur Golf Championship went into man-to-man combat today, and the match play bracket of 64 was studded with almost a score of various titleholders.

The 64 won their way into match play by scoring 159 or better in the 36-hole, two-day qualifier. Far in front of the field as the qualifying rounds ended Tuesday was a red-haired and freckled 16-year-old Columbus youth, Jack Nicklaus, state high school champion and three times winner of the "under 16" title in the state junior tournament. Nicklaus posted a score of 142 in the medal play qualifier.

That was two under par for Westbrook Country Club's 6,308-yard par-72 course and seven strokes ahead of his nearest competitors. Deadlocked in second place with 149 were Jack Zimmerman of Dayton, two-time state public links champion and runner-up for the amateur title last year; Karl Schmidt of Akron and Bob Ross Jr. of Springfield, winner of the state junior crown the last two years.

Two 18-hole matches were on tap today with defending champion Bob Rankin of Zanesville, who passed up the qualifying test in favor of two practice rounds, meeting Jim Hager of Mansfield in the opener.

Nicklaus had Bob Shave of Cleveland, former state high school champion as his opening foe; Zimmerman was opposed by Dave Ogilvie, a classy Cleveland youngster; Schmidt opposed Louis Craig of Cleveland and Ross was to meet 16-year-old Mike Podolski, Columbus public links threat.

Today's two rounds will slash to 16 the record breaking field of 218 which opened fire Monday in the qualifier. Another double round is scheduled Thursday, but Friday's semifinals and Saturdays championship will be over the 36-hole route.

Nicklaus scored seven birdies and missed par five times in the 36-hole medal test as he became the youngest entrant ever to lead the field into match play. For the first time, so far as tournament oldtimers can remember, no playoff was necessary to decide the qualifiers for the final match play berths.

Exactly 63 players shot 159 or under to move into the man-to-man bracket with Rankin, who qualified automatically.

Practically all the favorites landed among the elite although John Florio of Columbus, the 1928 and 1932 champion, failed by four strokes after soaring to 83 on the second round.

Safely in the fold, however, were Ed Koski, of Steubenville, the 36-year-old public links star who has won two national Polish golf titles; Howard Saunders of Gallipolis, runner-up in the 1953 amateur; Bob Roll of Greenville, former junior champion and 1954 runner-up; Tom Jones Jr. of Youngstown, the 1951 amateur king; Barney Hunt of Columbus, former state public links champion; Rick Jones of Youngstown, national intercollegiate champion, and Francis Cardi of Columbus, winner of the 1952 championship.

8 Women to Vie In Match Play Of State Tourney

COLUMBUS (AP) — Eight women teed off on the second round of match play in Ohio Women's Amateur Golf Championship today minus defending champion Carol Diringer, ousted yesterday.

Mrs. J. W. Labisky of Columbus, who defeated Miss Diringer, of Tiffin, one up after 19 holes, met another Columbus woman, Mrs. Robert Palmer, seven-time Franklin county champion.

Also on hand for the second 18-hole round was Barbara McIntire of Toledo and Anne Richardson of Columbus.

Miss Richardson met Mrs. Dolly McCarthy of Cincinnati, and Miss McIntire was paired with Polly Martin of St. Clairsville.

Betty Kerby of Akron met Jane McIntosh of Cincinnati in the fourth match.

Ike, Aide Rooting For Wrong Stars

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower got in some golf practice yesterday, walked about seven tenths of a mile and spent most of the afternoon watching the All-Star baseball game on television.

The 7-3 victory of the National Leaguers apparently wasn't the outcome he had been hoping for. Asked for the President's reaction, Hagerty said:

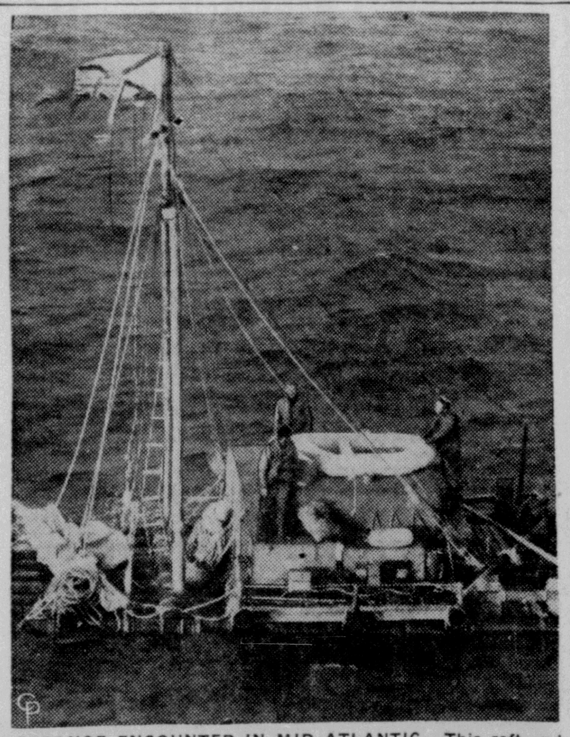

"He and I were rooting for the wrong team."

Missing Cookie Jar

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Dayton police, unable to find a crumb of evidence in the case of the missing cookie jar containing $900, were unable to find a crumb of evidence in the case of the missing cookie jar containing $900, were about ready to give up when they got a call from the jar's owner.

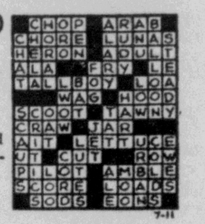

She sheepishly admitted getting out of bed one night to put the jar where no one could find it. No one did, until the woman cleaned behind a chair.

Dumping Refuse In Paint Creek Is Against Law

City Ordinance Is To Be Enforced; Warning Issued

A city ordinance which prohibits the dumping of anything into Paint Creek within the city limits, has been found in the new City Code, recently completed, and City Manager James F. Parkinson announced Wednesday that it will be enforced to the letter.

Not only does the ordinance prohibit the placing of anything in the stream, but a penalty of $50 is provided for violations.

Also it is noted that each day that such obstruction, rubbish, refuse, or whatever it is, is let in the channel of the stream in the city, it is a separate violation.

* * *

DURING recent years there has been a growing tendency to dump waste material along Paint Creek, Parkinson pointed out and cited one example on the south side of Paint Creek, between S. Fayette St. and North St. where a large amount of cement and other refuse was dumped several years ago. He said there are other instances where the stream has been crowded and partly obstructed by waste material dumped in it.

"The city has a dump for such waste material and there is where it must be dumped—not in Paint Creek" Parkinson stated. He pointe Creek" Parkinson stated. He pointed out obstructing channel of the stream would greatly increase flood dangers.

Hanging Abolition Delayed by British

LONDON (AP) — The House of Lords has delayed abolition of hanging, Britain's only form of capital punishment, until March.

The Lords last night overwhelmingly rejected the controversial abolition bill. Their action sent the measure back to the House of Commons. The bill can still become law if the lower house approves it again one year after its passage last March 13.

Britain's chief justice Lord Goddard led the opposition to the bill.

"If this bill is passed," he declared, "judges will not be able to give any greater punishment for deliberate wilful murder than for burglary."

Fair Plans Studied By Selden Grangers

Perfect combining weather cut attendance at the Selden Grange meeting in Staunton School Tuesday night, but the group discussed plans for the approaching fair with Past Master W. W. Montgomery presiding in the absence of the master.

It was announced by Ralph Nisley, a member of the Fair Board, that all paper used for decorating exhibit booths under the grandstand, should be of the flame-proof variety. This is a safety measure to comply with the state fire marshal's recommendation.

The Grange voted to cooperate with the Staunton PTO in furnishing and serving the dinner for the Bea Mar Hereford Sale Aug. 20.

Selden Juvenile Grange met at the same time with Mrs. Marion Waddle matron in charge. The program consisted of a new game, taught them by the lecturer, followed by songs with motions.

Nursery children too young for the Juvenile Department, were cared for by Mrs. June Pero and Mrs. Jo Ann Buck.

After the meetings the entire group was served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Marting, Mr. and Mrs. Al Rummans, Mr. and Mrs. Marlyn Riley, Harold Moats, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brandenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McFadden, Mrs. Anna McFadden and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brannon.

Final Tributes Paid Amos Zimmerman

Funeral services for Amos Zimmerman were conducted at the Little Funeral Home in Jeffersonville at 2 P. M. Tuesday by the Rev. C. R. Williamson, pastor of the Jeffersonville Methodist Church.

The minister offered prayer, read the hymns, "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and "Abide With Me," delivered the funeral sermon and paid a personal tribute.

The pallbearers, who also cared for the floral remembrances, were Kermit, Robert, Keith, Leslie and F. Scott Zimmerman and Robert Rhoads.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Pennington Drive Launched

Mark and C. of C. Manager William Stoughton pointed out in a joint statement Wednesday that it is the Chamber's feeling that removal of the Pennington plant from this community would be a serious loss, impairing the future growth and progress of this area.

The statement said, in part: "Pennington Bread, Inc., has proved itself, over the past 18 years, to be an important community asset. It is the duty of the Chamber of Commerce to do all in its power to insure the welfare of the Pennington employes and their families, and to maintain economic stability in Fayette County. These considerations prompted the Chamber of Commerce to take this action."

* * *

"WE ARE NOT looking at this merely from a cold business viewpoint, since such a viewpoint would indicate Columbus as the more practical location," Pennington told C. of C. directors. "The real reason for acceptance of your offer is that we don't want to create further hardship for our employes. Many of them own their own homes, and in most cases they would have to take losses if compelled to move to another location. At the same time, the business people of Washington C. H. have shown such an interest in us that I can't help but let sentiment enter into my thinking."

He previously had indicated that if the Washington C. H. plant is rebuilt it would be a modern, streamlined operation with a larger payroll than before the fire.

Pennington had explained to C. of C. directors and other interested businessmen two weeks ago that the company had found an unoccupied building in Columbus "ideally suited for a commercial bakery," and he pointed out that because of the northward shift of Pennington distribution, trucking costs would be cut considerably by locating in Columbus rather than rebuilding here.

According to company figures, the costs of distribution out of a Columbus plant would be approximately $12,500 less per year than handling the same amount of baked goods from a plant here. Two route trucks presently serve Washington C. H. while 24 trucks are required to serve Columbus and its suburbs.

* * *

DESPITE the distribution cost factor and virtual assurance that the company could be in production in the Columbus location before a new building here would be ready for occupancy, Pennington told the Chamber a week after the disastrous blaze that while he was "leaning toward Columbus for reasons of time and economy, the door is not closed to Washington C. H."

He declared at the time that, while he was "asking nothing," local support toward rebuilding naturally would be a factor in the firm's future planning. He added that the company would rather remain in Washington C. H., because of its trained local personnel, ownership of the land on which the wrecked plant stood and for reasons of sentiment— —"if everything were equal."

After the preliminary discussions with Pennington soon after the $500,000 fire, a special Chamber of Commerce committee was formed to assist the Pennington firm in reestablishing operations here. This committee, headed by Robert Terhune made the first financial overtures to the company, and a series of meetings culminated in the $50,000 offer.

Other members of the committee are A. H. Hutton, Joseph Peters, Thomas Murray, Arch O. Riber, Ralph Taylor and Rettig.

* * *

TERHUNE pointed out Tuesday night that the committee felt justified in making the proposal because the people most directly involved—the Pennington employes—already are respected members of the community who make a major contribution to the social, religious and business life of Washington C. H. "Our knowledge of the Pennington company and its operations made it imperative that every step be taken to keep the plant here", Terhune added.

The Pennington corporation started local operations in 1927 and has expanded production and employment in the intervening years. Its weekly payroll before the fire was in excess of $13,000.

Only the partially-destroyed loading docks at the plant have been in operation since the blaze, with bread being trucked here from Pennington's Cincinnati bakery and from other suppliers in Columbus for redistribution to route trucks. Distribution employes have been on the job daily since the fire, and the Meriweather Motor Co. showroom, next door to the wrecked plant, was made available for temporary offices.

Wright said the temporary offices will be moved to the Baker Bldg., CCC Highway west, within a few days in order not to further inconvenience the Meriweather firm.

Meanwhile, clean-up and salvage operations are continuing in the wrecked building.

Dumping Refuse In Paint Creek Is Against Law

City Ordinance Is To Be Enforced; Warning Issued

A city ordinance which prohibits the dumping of anything into Paint Creek within the city limits, has been found in the new City Code, recently completed, and City Manager James F. Parkinson announced Wednesday that it will be enforced to the letter.

Not only does the ordinance prohibit the placing of anything in the stream, but a penalty of $50 is provided for violations.

Also it is noted that each day that such obstruction, rubbish, refuse, or whatever it is, is let in the channel of the stream in the city, it is a separate violation.

* * *

DURING recent years there has been a growing tendency to dump waste material along Paint Creek, Parkinson pointed out and cited one example on the south side of Paint Creek, between S. Fayette St. and North St. where a large amount of cement and other refuse was dumped several years ago. He said there are other instances where the stream has been crowded and partly obstructed by waste material dumped in it.

"The city has a dump for such waste material and there is where it must be dumped—not in Paint Creek" Parkinson stated. He pointe Creek" Parkinson stated. He pointed out obstructing channel of the stream would greatly increase flood dangers.

Hanging Abolition Delayed by British

LONDON (AP) — The House of Lords has delayed abolition of hanging, Britain's only form of capital punishment, until March.

The Lords last night overwhelmingly rejected the controversial abolition bill. Their action sent the measure back to the House of Commons. The bill can still become law if the lower house approves it again one year after its passage last March 13.

Britain's chief justice Lord Goddard led the opposition to the bill.

"If this bill is passed," he declared, "judges will not be able to give any greater punishment for deliberate wilful murder than for burglary."
